ALL THE STARS COME OUT FOR SUMMER

If the weather lets you down this summer, you can be assured that July on cable won't! Starting with some crazy adventure in Bill & Ted's Bogus Journey; the chuckles continue with What About Bob? starring Richard Dreyfuss and Bill Murray; Dustin Hoffman goes underground in the gangster yarn Billy Bathgate; Al Pacino and Michelle Pfeiffer star in the heart-warming romantic comedy Frankie and Johnny; the romance continues between Bette Midler and James Caan in For the Boys; and there's Spielberg animated magic as Fievel Goes West in his second outing in An American Tail!

Meanwhile, there's an exclusive offer to all Videotron customers to save money on renting or buying a new TV or video — plus news of an easier way to pay your bills — see page 2.

And learn the truth behind the world of secret agents in a new 26-part series called Spies on Discovery — see page 3.

Plus, dinosaurs are back, bigger than ever before: see Videotron Pick on Cable for some larger-than-life programmes from Discovery — page 4; and here's your chance to win tickets to The Natural History Museum and Steven Spielberg's blockbusting movie, Jurassic Park — turn to page 4. It's all inside this month's Videotron pages.

Super spies . . .

Bugging devices, forged passports, poisoned umbrellas — these are just some of the tools of the espionage trade!

But what is the truth behind the glamorous world portrayed in today's best-selling thrillers and 007 movies?

Spies tells the story of the greatest spies from Mata Haris to Mossad, revealing information never before available to the public.

Spies is a 26-part series showing on Tuesdays at 8pm, repeating on Saturdays at 9pm, beginning on Tuesday 6 July, only on Discovery Channel.

. . . and super sleuths

SuperChannel is running no less than three super-sleuthing series this summer, starting with the vintage cop series The Detectives.

Robert Taylor stars as veteran police Captain Matt Holbrook and, at 6.30pm on Mondays in July, he'll be investigating The Streger Affair (5 July), a Shot in the Dark (12 July), The Hiding Place (19 July) and the Decoy (26 July).

Meanwhile, David Janssen stars as the suave and sophisticated Richard Diamond — the private eye who is as hard as his name and takes on any case no matter the size every Wednesday at 6.30pm.

In July, Diamond takes on The

Hoodlum (7 July), The Act of Grace (14 July), The Bookie (21 July) and finally The Client (28 July), an usual case of of disappearing planes in Mexico!

Anne Francis stars in the swinging 60s series about Honey West — a female detective who runs an agency with Bruce, her pet ocelot!

Screening every Saturday at 6.30pm in July, deadly paperweights and a vicious killer keep Honey West busy in this thrilling drugs syndicate adventure (22 July) in Abominable Snowman, and diamonds and death threats give her a major case that proves hard to crack in A Matter of Wife and Death (29 July).

CHANNEL

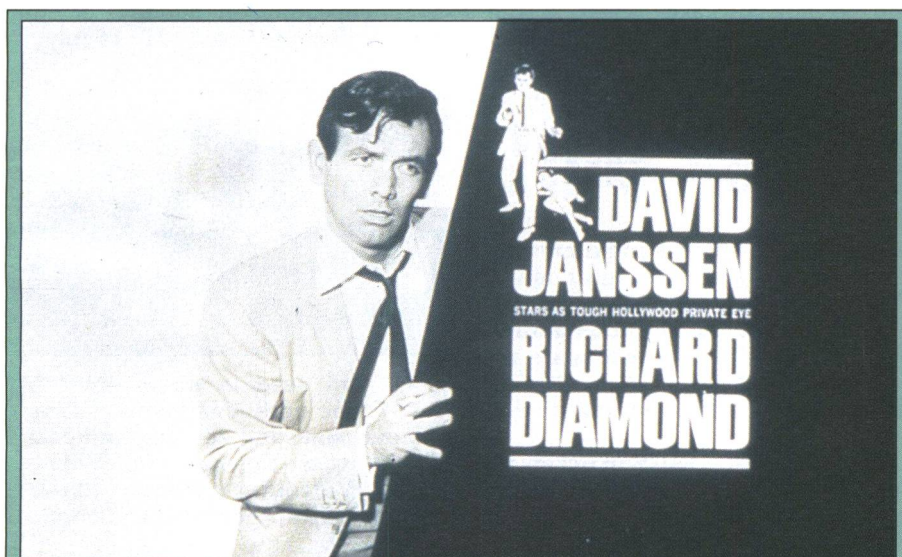

THE DETECTIVES

A fast-paced vintage cop series starring Robert Taylor as Captain Matt Holbrook.

With his trusty team of lieutenants, Holbrook is called on, in the daily routine of police work, to solve any number of cases from grand theft, homicides and accidental killings to offering police protection to prize fighters and members of the Mob.

The Detectives also stars Ursula Thiess, Tighe Andrews, Adam West and Mark Goddard. (US — 1959, b/w)

RICHARD DIAMOND

David Janssen plays the suave, sophisticated Richard Diamond, a private eye who proves a magnet for damsels in distress.

Diamond's tough exterior hides a heart of gold. At home in any scenario, his cases range from tracing missing persons to murder suspects, taking him from the socialite circles of Hollywood to the downtown venues on skid row. Helping to keep Diamond out of trouble is Sam, his husky-voiced telephone answering service girl.

Richard Diamond also stars Mary Tyler Moore, Russ Conway and Richard Devon. (US — 1959, b/w)

Dinosaurs are back . . .

. . . and they're bigger than before!

They reigned for 140 million years then they mysteriously vanished 65 million years ago, leaving fossilised secrets locked into the earth.

Now they are back, bigger than ever before, with dinosaur comedy shows, dinosaur children's presenters, dinosaur magazines, models, T-shirts and caps crowding the shop shelves and Steven Spielberg's spectacular film Jurassic Park hitting the screens this summer.

How did the dinosaurs live — were they hostile, vicious monsters or social, intelligent creatures? How did they communicate — and why, after dominating the planet for so long, did they die so suddenly? This July Discovery Channel presents a one-hour special and a four-part series which provide an intriguing insight into the prehistoric world and its extraordinary inhabitants.

Dinosaur is an award-winning programme which features the stop-motion animation in Jurassic Park, and a visit to Dinosaur Hall, New York.

We also hear about the legends of today — is the "Loch Ness Monster" a possible pleisiosaur? And what about the unexplored creature who is said to inhabit Lake Telley in the African Congo? Dinosaur screens on Wednesday 7 July at 9pm, repeating on Sunday 11 July at 6pm.

The Dinosaurs series — The Monsters Emerge, Flesh on the Bones, The Nature of the Beast and The Death of the Dinosaur — shows Wednesdays at 9pm, repeating on Sundays at 6pm and begins on Wednesday 14 July.

Win a monster day out!

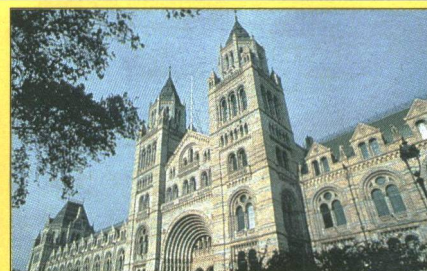

In this month's competition, Videotron and Discovery Channel are giving away a first prize family day out at The Natural History Museum in London, with your chance to see the ultimate dinosaur exhibition!

It boasts unique fossils including real dinosaur stomach stones and thigh bones that you can touch, more than 100 dinosaur specimens, full-size robotic and static dinosaur models, hands-on casts and computer displays. The immense Iguanodon, the colossal Camarasaurus, the almighty Allosaurus, Tyrannosaurus, Triceratops and Tenontosaurus are all exhibited in 1,200 sq m of floor space in what will be a great day out for the whole family!

Five runners-up will win tickets to see Steven Spielberg's huge smash-hit film Jurassic Park, showing in Southampton this August.

All you need to do to enter is answer the questions below, filling in your name and address, and post to: Monster Competition, Videotron, Videotron House, 11-29 Belmont Hill, Lewisham, London SE13 5AU.

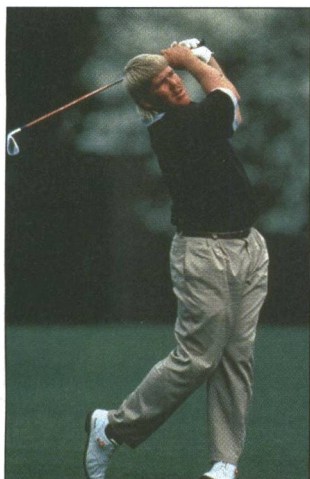

1. What is the name of the famous rock group that named itself after a dinosaur?
2. The longest dinosaur that ever walked the earth was 27 metres long and is exhibited at the Natural History Museum. What is it called?

The Beeb wanted it. ITV wanted it. BSkyB got it!

It is the new Australian surf and sun soap Paradise Beach, one of the hottest programmes up for grabs at the recent Cannes TV festival.

The BBC were rumoured to want Paradise Beach as a replacement for the doomed Eldorado. Instead, it was Sky's head of Programming, David Elstein, who was celebrating: 'We are absolutely delighted that Paradise Beach is coming to Sky One.

'The location, characters and storylines give it an irresistible quality.'

The show's ingredients are perfect waves, flawless bodies, sun, sea, great music and romance, all set against the beauty of Australia's Gold Coast. It has been hailed as Australia's Baywatch.

Paradise Beach is likely to start airing on Sky One in the next couple of months. ■

Who's that Guy?

Country Music Television

Seven days a week, 24 hours a day

Guy Clark is best known for writing hits for Ricky Skaggs, Rodney Crowell and Vince Gill, but his latest album Boats to Build reveals him as an engaging singer in his own right.

Guy's insightful songs have enriched contemporary music for more than two decades now, so how does he feel to suddenly be acclaimed as a performer when he's been at it for so long?

'It can be amusing,' he chuckles. 'I've been doin' this for years.'

His popularity in Country circles is something of a surprise, as many regard him as a folk singer. 'I don't really see myself as a Country person, although being from Texas I obviously grew up with it,' he says thoughtfully.

'But I'm not a folk singer either. People don't know where to put me. I'm a songwriter.'

Guy is well known to CMT Europe viewers for his grainy, tongue-in-cheek video Baton Rouge. His new album features the equally humorous Jack of All Trades, How'd You Get This Number and the cautionary Too Much, performed on CMT by The Pirates of the Mississippi.

'Humour is very important' he asserts. 'In the course of one day you probably laugh more than anything else.'

But he also finds time for touching vignettes like Madonna with Child 1969, I Don't Love You Much, Do I, sung with Emmylou Harris, and the beautiful title track, also seen on CMT. 'It's whatever the situation calls for' he says philosophically. ■ JEREMY ISAAC

Civil Wars

Sky One

Tuesdays at 9.00pm from 20th July

Mariel Hemingway makes her television series debut in Civil Wars as ambitious lawyer Sydney Guilford who runs a small Manhattan divorce firm.

Sydney's former partner Eli Levinson, played by Alan Rosenberg, suffers a nervous breakdown at the start of the series and spends a brief period in hospital. Though he attempts to return to the office, it is obvious from his strange behaviour that he will be unable to deal with the stresses of his profession.

Charlie Howel (Peter Onorati) joins the firm to help Sydney with Eli's cases, and makes no attempt to hide his attraction to his beautiful partner.

The company staff also includes secretary Denise Iannello, while clients range from wealthy to working class as the series reveals the painful process that occurs when a couple can no longer live together.

Faces of a Queen

Elizabeth R

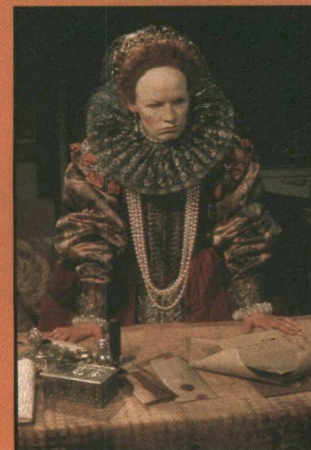

Sundays at 9.00pm from 20th June

One of the most popular and highly acclaimed series made by BBC Television, Elizabeth R is a cycle of six plays that explores a golden period of English history and the life of one of the most remarkable monarchs ever to sit on the English throne.

Each play explores a different face of Queen Elizabeth I, who succeeded to the crown in 1558 at the age of 25 and reigned for almost 45 years until her death in 1603.

Glenda Jackson delivers her now-classic performance as the Queen, strongly supported by a fine cast that includes Robert Hardy, Robin Ellis, John Woodvine and Peter Jeffrey. ■

Bone idle beasts stir again!

Dinosaurs!

Wednesday
7th 9.00pm

With the release of Steven Spielberg's Jurassic Park, dinosaurs are looming large this month.

The Discovery Channel is showing an impeccable sense of timing by scheduling this award-winning programme, which features Hollywood star Christopher Reeve narrating the spectacular stop-motion animation of Phil Tippett, the chief animator on Jurassic Park.

Tippett brings to life the Tyrannosaurus Rex, the Sauropods and many other huge beasts. There's a look at the work of scientists unearthing more clues about the fate of the dinosaurs and even a review of the legend of the Loch Ness Monster.

In the same Wednesday night timeslot the following week (14th July) Discovery is also showing The Dinosaurs. The first of four episodes, The Monsters Emerge focuses on the events surrounding the modern discovery of dinosaur fossils.

Until about 200 years ago no one realised these now familiar creatures had existed. ■

Cable Guide has 10 copies each of Titan Books' Jurassic Park cartoon book and The Illustrated Dinosaur Movie Guide, worth £5.99 and £9.99 respectively, to offer readers. Just name two previous films that director Steven Spielberg has made.

Send your entry, with your name and address, on a postcard to Jurassic Park Competition, Cable Guide, Communications House, 5 Factory Lane, Croydon CR9 3RA. Closing date: 20 July 1993.

Top of the Pops

Weekdays 11.00pm
(from Monday 5th)

THE THEME MUSIC was Whole Lotta Love by CCS, Pan's people provided the visuals in the absence of videos, and the presenters were poptabulous DJs like Tony Blackburn, Jimmy Saville or Peter Powell. Top of the Pops 1970s-style was a goldmine of music and styles, spanning the years from glam rock and soul classics to punk and new romantics.

UK Gold is chirpy-chirpy-cheep-cheeping it back to the days before video killed the radio star to enjoy again the classics – T Rex, Stevie Wonder, The Jacksons, Elvis Presley, The Faces, Diana Ross – and the cringe-making – The Wombles, Showaddywaddy, Donny Osmond, The Bay City Rollers, The Rubettes, The Brighthouse & Rastrick Brass Band.

Remember We Are Family (Sister Sledge), Don't Stop Till You Get Enough (Michael Jackson), He's Misstra Know It All (Stevie Wonder), My Way (Elvis Presley) and Accidents Will Happen (Elvis Costello and the Attractions)? They're all in store in this month's weekday Top of the Pops return trip. One edition really stands out. On Wednesday 14th viewers can step into the Christmas edition of TOTP, which included T Rex (Get It On), Aston, Gardner and Dyke (Resurrection Shuffle), Slade (Coz I Luv You), The Rolling Stones (Brown Sugar), Rod Stewart (Maggie May), George Harrison (My Sweet Lord) and Benny Hill (Ernie The Fastest Milkman in the West). Rock on!

TEN 1970S TOP OF THE POPS CDS TO BE WON!

African Elephants may be extinct by the year 2000

Shown approximate actual size of 5 1/4" high.

On the African plain, an elephant calf sits up to see the world. Still very young, it is already part of a society surprisingly similar to our own. Elephants have long childhoods, strong family ties, and the potential of living 60 years. But sadly, today, only one in five African Elephants lives past its 30th birthday. Elephants lives are constantly lost to hunting and shrinking habitats. And if the present rate of decimation continues, African Elephants could be all but extinct by the mid-1990's.

To raise awareness of the African Elephant's plight, Brooks & Bentley have created a new porcelain sculpture, African Elephant Calf.

Created under the supervision of Smithsonian specialists

This engaging portrayal of an elephant calf is exactly sculpted under the supervision of specialists at the Smithsonian's National Zoological Park in Washington, D.C. Both the Smithsonian and its National Zoological Park are leaders in conservation efforts worldwide.

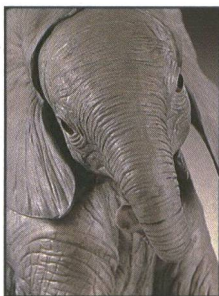

Intricate hand-crafting has recreated every detail of the elephant, from the rich texture of its wrinkled hide, to the folds of its ears. The subtle skin shades are rendered with skilful hand-painting and - best of all - shows the glint in its eye that seems to characterise all elephants, revealing a special kind of playfulness. And the result is a work with such a sense of vitality, you can almost imagine the calf using its trunk to pick some tender shoots, or to take a cooling shower bath.

A sculpture you can take pride in displaying

The African Elephant Calf can be displayed with pride as a symbol of hope for the magnificent African Elephant, the largest animal on land. What better reason to reserve this Brooks & Bentley exclusive now. The issue price per sculpture is just £48.00*, payable in convenient monthly instalments. Be sure to post your reservation by 31st July, 1993. Or telephone 0732 363086 - 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. You need send no money now.

*The texture of the elephant's skin,
the playful glint in its eye ... all perfectly portrayed.*

OUR PLEDGE OF SATISFACTION

Brooks & Bentley takes pride in offering works of uncompromisingly high standards of quality, created with care and dedication by skilled craftsmen. If you are not satisfied with your purchase for any reason, simply return it within one year for a replacement or full refund. This pledge is in addition to your statutory rights.

Who's hot and who's not in the WWF – John Greenfield reveals all!

Hi, FANS! Here we are with the latest news and views from the WWF circuit.

Having travelled to Japan and fought IWGP heavyweight champ THE FABULOUS MUDA, the victorious HULK HOGAN wants a rematch. The Fabulous Muta challenged the Hulkster to a clash for the title, either in Japan or the USA, and Hogan agreed, the date to be set later. My prediction – it'll be at Summerslam 93.

The WWF stars who will travel to Summerslam 93 are at the moment a closely guarded secret, but new signings THE SMOKING GUNS, THE HARLEM NITES and THE TAZMANIACS are expected to attend.

MACHOMAN RANDY SAVAGE has travelled south to the USWA as part of the WWF-USWA Cooperative, but Randy failed to take the heavyweight title away from JERRY THE KING LAWLER. Instead 6' 8" powerhouse PAPA SHONGO took Lawler's coveted USWA crown in under five minutes.

The WWF tour of America has taken in such cities as San Francisco, Pittsburgh and New York, the most memorable event being at the Memorial Colosseum in New York City, where the ATOM BOMB, formerly signed as The Nitestalker in Smokey Mountain Wrestling, fought fan favourite VIRGIL to a double count-out. MACHOMAN SAVAGE fought THE GIANT GONZALEZ and won by disqualification, while on the same night SHAWN MICHAELS fought CRUSH for the Intercontinental Belt at the Expo Building in Portland, Maine, with Michaels again emerging victorious.

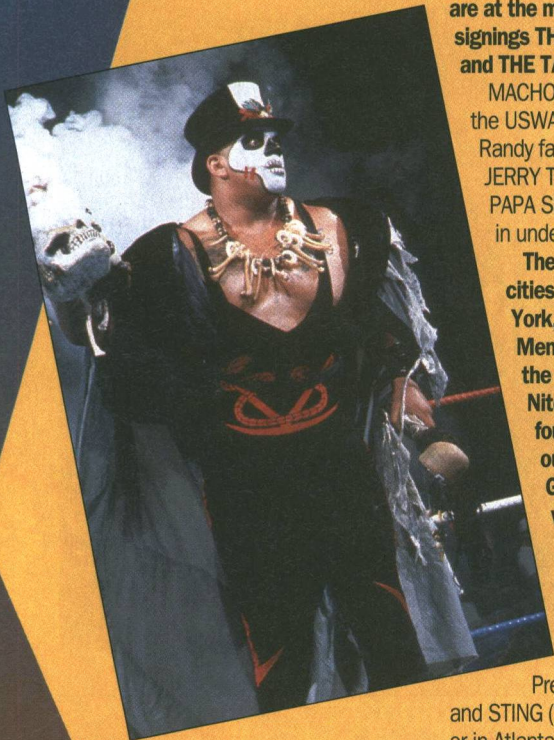

Now an update on stars who are no longer with the WWF. SID JUSTICE has come out of retirement and is to sign for the WCW as Sid Vicious, under the guidance of Elvis Presley's one-time manager Colonel Tom Parker! THE BRITISH BULLDOG, DAVY BOY SMITH and STING (WCW) are to form a new tag team. The name is not yet known, but they are training together in Atlanta, Georgia. My source tells me that their debut will be in early July.

THE HARLEM NITES have issued a challenge to THE MEGAMANIACS (Hogan and Beefcake), the winners to become number one contenders to the WWF tag team belts held by MONEY INCORPORATED.

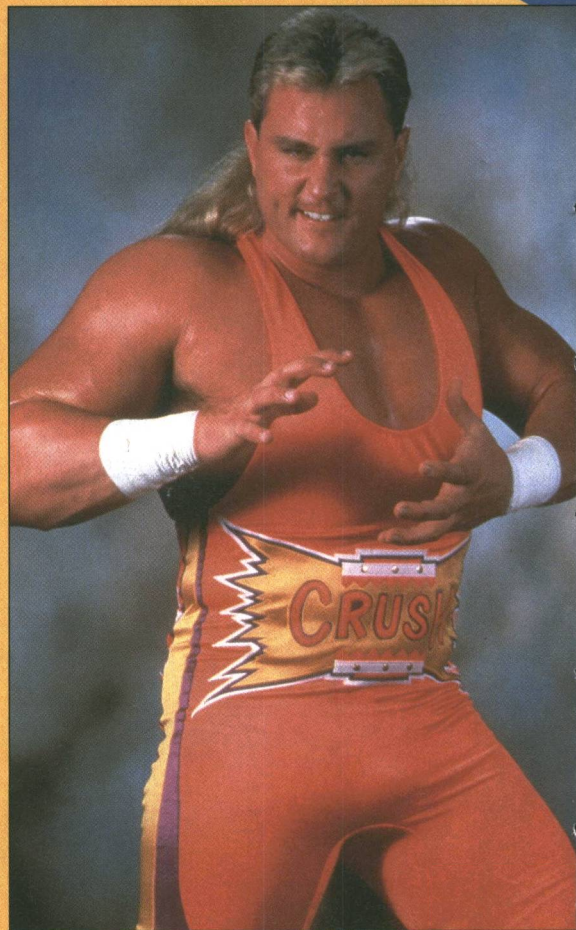

LEX LUGER continues to cause controversy with his forearm smash technique. Nearly all of his matches end with a knock-out. Did you know that many stars do not want matches against Luger because of this unfair technique?

Finally HACKSAW JIM DUGGAN, still bent on revenge and now fully fit, has signed an open contract in the hope that YOKOZUNA will sign on the dotted line. A double main event at Summerslam 93, perhaps?

That's all for now. Cheerio!

Watch it all come

Bravo brings back to life classic films and television series from the 40's to the 70's. You can watch Bogart rubbing shoulders with Flash Gordon and John Mills running into Doris Day. Or take 'One Step Beyond', see 'The Invisible Man', cheer 'Kelly's Heroes' and wonder 'How The West Was Won'. Just some of the treasures from the vaults of film and television that you can relive on Bravo. They don't make them like this any more.

back to life.

PROGRAMME LINE UP- JULY

CASABLANCA

(20th July) - This wonderfully turbulent love story stars Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman as ex-lovers who memorably meet up again at Rick's Bar in war-torn Casablanca.

WHERE EAGLES DARE

(10th/29th July) - Alistair MacLean's epic World War II adventure starring Richard Burton and Clint Eastwood. An elite group of commandos parachute into the Bavarian Alps to rescue an Allied officer being held by the Nazis in an impregnable mountain fortress.

THE DORIS DAY SHOW

(Saturdays at 5.30pm) - Unhappy with life in the big city, Doris moves to her father's ranch near San Francisco. The series follows her hilarious attempts to adjust to rural life and to keep her two mischievous children under control.

BONANZA

(Fridays and Tuesdays at 7pm) - The first Western to be televised in colour, Bonanza portrays the dreams and dramas of the Cartwright family, ranch owners and pillars of the community in Virginia City, Nevada.

PHOENIX HALL, the drama series about the school that's a home away from home for many of its pupils, is among a number of favourites to come to an end this month, so be sure you're in at the denouement!

In the final episode (on Saturday 17th at 5.00pm) there's definitely an end-of-term spirit (not to mention a party), and both Mike and Terry find themselves at the centre of a host of surprises. Join Elly and her curious family and friends in The Bartons from Saturday 24th at 5.00pm. In the first episode Elly goes to bizarre lengths to save her precious tree-house when Mr Jensen tries to persuade her father to cut the tree down.

And there's comedy and drama with Fifteen (Tuesdays and Thursdays at 5.00pm from Tuesday 20th), as the American hulks and babes at Hillside High prepare themselves for the challenges of life that any and every self-respecting teen expects to take on. ■

The Marzipan Pig

Weekdays at 9.00am from

Monday 19th to

Friday 23rd

IF CARTOONS ARE what you're after, then cartoons are what you'll get in the shape of five entertaining animated tales on The Children's Channel this month.

The award-winning The Marzipan Pig is based on Russel Hoban's story about a little pig who starts to think about love when he gets lost behind a sofa.

Set in New York, Jazztime is another award-winner that tells of how two young girls, one black and one white, form a life-long friendship through a chance encounter just as Jazz is set to burst onto the music scene, changing it forever.

Abel's Island is a brilliant cartoon featuring the voice of Tim Curry telling the story of a brave mouse and his search for his lost wife on a savage island.

Written by Oscar Wilde and narrated by David Niven are The Remarkable Rocket, about a conceited rocket who thinks he's going to be the star of a royal firework display, and The Selfish Giant, the story of a little boy who teaches a lonely ogre the joys of a happy life.

And the Summer holiday fun continues from Monday 19th with Rude Dog and the Dweebs, Ovide and the Gang, The Boy From Andromeda, The New Adventures of He-Man, Spiff and Hercules and Potsworth. ■

NICK MAKES IT SNAPPY

EVERY DAY BRINGS new challenges and new surprises when you are six years old and possessed of a boundless imagination. And Nicholas's routine is filled with fun, especially since his stuffed toys Bigfoot, McGonigle and Hanna V Varoom are on hand to help him through the day in The Children's Channel's new comedy adventure drama Alligator Pie.

One day Nicholas's trip to the park with his playmates Monica and Grandad is suddenly ruined

John Daly - Wild Man of golf Sprints on

Sportsmen search for generations, for decades, forever to be The Man. Four rounds of golf turned John Daly into just that.

US PGA Golf

Thursday 1st to
Sunday 4th at
9.05pm
Highlights
Sunday 4th and
Monday 5th at 12noon

The Legend of the Wild Thing (not a nickname normally associated with a gentleman's game like golf) started with his overnight drive to the US PGA in 1991. Daly, an unknown US tour golfer from Arkansas, was ninth reserve and only made the start because of the birth of Nick Price's baby. The win made John as famous as fellow Arkansas resident Bill Clinton.

On such fateful events are sporting superstars born. Daly became a soaring superstar in less than a week. The 24-year-old tore the field apart. Big John was a young man who could reach 400-yard holes in one shot (even the very best pros are happy to drive consistently over 250 yards), who coined the phrase 'Grip it and rip it', who was so much more than the computer-programmed, characterless golfer that America had been producing for 10 years or more. Daly was unusual, unexpected, uncontrolled.

The uncontrolled part didn't just confine itself to wayward tee shots. John celebrated his unlikely major championship with one Bettye Fulford, his girlfriend. Only later did John find out, among other things, that she was still married, was 10 years older than she confessed to be and was pregnant with his baby. An on/off romance, paternity suits and full-scale claim and counter claim fanned the flames of publicity within weeks.

Then came the booze stories. John liked a beer and set about trashing a few hotel rooms or getting thrown off planes because of bad behaviour. Golf was not used to such headlines from its headlines and after a year of frowns, the US PGA took control by helping John dry out. This process got his relationship with Bettye back on course and, sure enough, the newly married man returned to the leader board. The Masters this April was Daly's best showing for months and sent his confidence back into orbit.

John Daly - unusual, unexpected and uncontrolled

'Life is getting easier,' John now confesses. 'I'm also beginning to handle life without a drink.' The family man is moving from Colorado to Florida and his open, laid back attitude to life wins him friends wherever he goes. John has become a star of Sky's coverage of the US PGA Tour this year. He features this month in the Sprint Western Open from Illinois (all four days live from 1 - 4 July). And he should be going to Britain for the Open at Royal St George's Park in Kent.

'I sent my entry form in and I believe this course is just like Muirfield,' he says. That might not be great news. In 1992 at Muirfield John finished dead last of the four-day field. nevertheless, he made a huge impact on UK golf fans by hitting his drives over the back fence on the practise ground - proving his amazing power.

Later in the year comes his best chance of another major within the US PGA Championship (live on Sky Sports) with its normal hot and humid weather that the Brits find so hard to cope with. No European golfer has ever won this title, which means it is even more likely that another chapter in the mythology of John Daly may soon be written. Expect only the unexpected from the Wild Thing. ■

Gaelic football

Wire TV has exclusive coverage of Gaelic football in the build-up to the All-Ireland Final.

Throughout July the teams are working through to four regional finals: Munster, Connacht, Leinster and Ulster. Semi-finals then decide the finalists.

For the uninitiated, Kerry are the championships specialists with 30 titles but Cork are the current champions. The All-Ireland Final is held in September at Croke Park, Dublin, a massive stadium with a capacity of more than 80,000.

Wire TV is showing Gaelic Sports on Wednesdays at 8.15pm while The Main Event on Saturdays at 9.00pm has the latest action. ■

Major League Baseball

Baseball struck out when Screensport merged with Eurosport. But America's national past-time is now back with Wire TV.

This year's competition has been thrown wide open with unexpected successes for the Boston Red Sox and the Detroit Tigers in the American League. The National League has also had its share of surprises with the Philadelphia Phillies and the San Francisco Giants emerging as strong contenders for October's World Series play-offs.

Wire TV is pitching it to you in This Week in Baseball on Thursdays at 8.15pm and The Main Event on Sundays at 7.00p. ■

Football

One of the year's most exciting football events reaches its climax this month.

Eurosport is showing the final of Copa America live from Guaya, Ecuador, on Sunday 4th at 10.00pm.

Before that the network is also showing the semis (Thursday 1st noon, Friday 2nd 1.30pm) and the third-place play-off (Sunday 4th 9.00am). ■

FROM THE FAMOUS ROYAL ALBERT STUDIOS

The Flower of the Month box collection

A collection of miniature English Bone China boxes with hand-made and hand-painted flowers.

For anyone who appreciates rare and beautiful objects the "Flower of the Month" Box Collection represents an exceptional opportunity to acquire twelve superb works of art from the famous Royal Albert studios.

Every leaf and every petal of the flowers on these boxes is entirely hand-made and hand-painted. A fact which is all the more remarkable when you consider that the craftsmen of Royal Albert have created all of these boxes in miniature.

The "Flower of the Month" boxes are made from fine English Bone China, have a diameter of just 2.5", and have been enhanced with 22 carat gold decoration.

At just £14.95 they represent excellent value for money, and offer you the chance to add an heirloom to your collection which will be treasured and appreciated by generations yet to come.

How the miniature flowers are made.

As you can imagine it takes Royal Albert years and years to train its flower makers.

To create each flower they first roll the bone china clay flat (as if they were making pastry) and cut out the shape of each individual stamen, petal and leaf. Next they dip their fingers in olive oil so that they can handle the clay without it sticking. Then, painstakingly, they model their flowers with the help of some of the finest tools you can imagine.

Finally, the flowers are carefully painted.

Because this is a collection of miniature boxes, decorated with miniature flowers, the long meticulous nature of the work involved cannot be over-emphasised. These boxes are genuine works of art.

Finally, the flowers are carefully painted.

Excellent value for money

At just £14.95 each no one could argue with the value which these boxes offer. When we receive your commission we will complete and despatch one box to you each month. The collection may be paid for in twelve convenient interest free monthly instalments of £14.95.

Dustin Hoffman and Nicole Kidman in Billy Bathgate

Billy Bathgate
Sunday 11th 10.00pm

Let's go, Dutch!

Written by Tom Stoppard from EL Doctorow's novel, Billy Bathgate is set in the seedy underworld of 1935 New York, and tells the story of notorious gangster Dutch Schulz. Dustin Hoffman stars as Schulz, but the story is told through the eyes of the title character, played by Loren Dean.

Billy first became involved with Schulz's gang when hanging around one of the hood's bootleg depots, catching his eye with a skillful juggling display.

From here Billy is taken in by the gang and becomes involved in a web of illicit dealing and double-dealing, as Dutch conducts his shady business with brutality and violence.

Billy also falls for Drew Preston (Nicole Kidman), sometime companion of Bruce Willis, who is turfed into the river wearing a pair of cement over-shoes as punishment for negotiating with rival gangs. Confused? You will be, but it has to be said that director Robert Benton's refined and intelligent drama nevertheless possesses what one critic described as a grace and gravity rare in American films. ■

A good Bette!

AMERICAN RADIO singer Dixie Leonard (Bette Midler) is called to England by her Uncle Art Silver who writes for song-and-dance star Eddie Sparks (James Caan). While entertaining at a US airbase, Dixie steals the show with her risqué dialogue and some great singing, heralding the start of one of America's greatest (fictional) showbiz acts.

But it's not all gags, as the action moves away from 'light-hearted' wartime Europe, first to Korea and then to Vietnam, each tour bringing the duo into closer, more personal contact with the serious business of war.

Midler and Caan deliver some great songs and rib-splitting gags while handling the more emotional scenes with deftness and skill. George Segal is terrific as the whacky Art Silver, pilloried for his leftist views in another of the current spate of Hollywood's mandatory purges of the McCarthy period. Directed by Mark Rydell with music by Dave Grusin. ■

ALL-STAR ATTRACTIONS

AN AMERICAN TAIL II: FIEVEL GOES WEST Sky Movies Plus Saturday 17th 6.00pm The animated adventures of Fievel the mouse continue in this Western sequel to Steven Spielberg's 1986 cartoon blockbuster. When his family moves out to the Old West, Fievel gets into the gun-slinging spirit, teaming up with a dozy but wise sheriff (voiced by James Stewart) to take on a posse of bad guys. Directed by Don Bluth and also featuring the voices of John Cleese and Dom DeLuise.

ERNEST SCARED STUPID Sky Movies Plus Saturday 24th 8.00pm There's more crazy comedy for youngsters when loveable, dim-witted hero Ernest P Worrell, played by Jim Varney, breaks an ancient spell, unleashing a long-dormant evil creature and placing himself at the centre of a strange and spooky adventure. Fortunately for him, an eccentric old lady, played by Eartha Kitt, comes to his aid, using her knowledge of the supernatural to help defeat the evil in their midst. Directed by John Cherry.

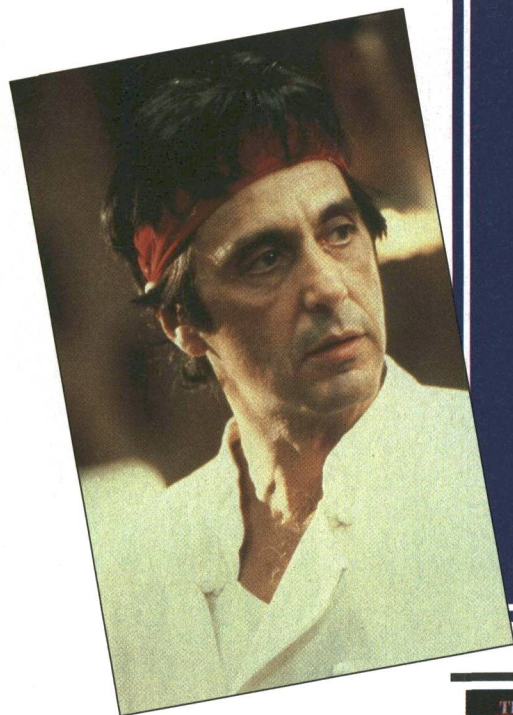

MANNEQUIN ON THE MOVE Sky Movies Plus Thursday 29th 8.00pm The romantic-comedy sequel to the sleeper 1986 hit Mannequin. William Ragsdale replaces Andrew McCarthy in the lead as store-clerk Jason who, enchanted by the perfect beauty of a department store mannequin, is surprised to find that the removal of her necklace causes her to come to life as Kristy Swanson. A fairytale romance begins, with Jason introducing her to the ways of the modern world, while Jessie shares with him the story of how she was cursed to spend her days in her wooden, doll-like prison. Also starring Meshach Taylor and Terry Kiser.

TENDER MERCIES The Movie Channel Sunday 11th 12noon Robert Duvall delivers an Oscar-winning performance in this acclaimed, low-key drama as Mac Sledge, an alcoholic country-and-western singer whose career has gone into decline following the departure of his wife Dixie, played by Betty Buckley. However, he finds a new lease of life when he moves into an out-of-the-way Texan motel with widow Rosa Lee (Tess Harper), helping her with chores, resuming his singing career and eventually falling in love. Directed by Bruce Beresford, the film won a second Academy Award for Horton Foote's incisive screenplay.

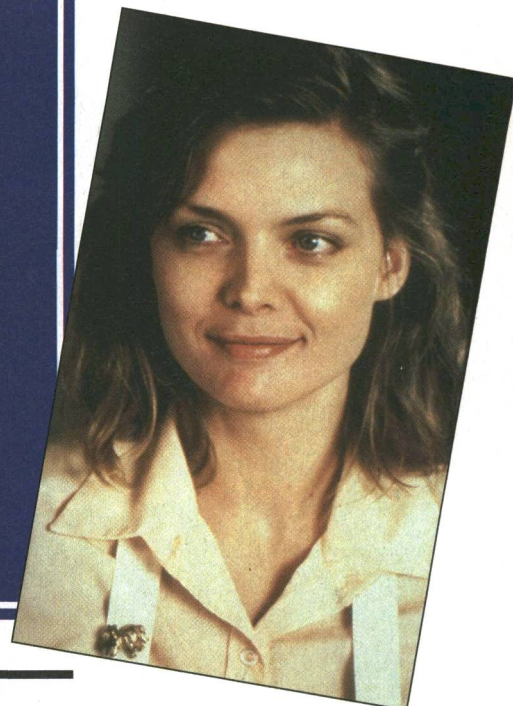

WHAT ABOUT BOB? The Movie Channel Monday 12th 8.00pm A smash-hit comedy directed by former Muppet man Frank Oz. Hypochondriac and multiphobic Bob Wiley (Bill Murray) is a psychiatrist's nightmare; more specifically he's psychiatrist Dr Leo Marvin's (Richard Dreyfuss) nightmare. The arrogant doc can't even go on an idyllic family holiday without the walking bundle of nerves trailing along behind for some on-the-spot treatment. And irritating Marvin more is the fact that Bob forges a closer relationship with his wife and children than he has ever managed. Also starring Julie Hagerty and Charlie Korsmo.

Al Pacino as Johnny

Love AT THE DINER

Michelle Pfeiffer as Frankie

FRANKIE, PLAYED BY Michelle Pfeiffer, works as a waitress at the Apollo Cafe, a cheap downtown diner in New York, and hasn't had a date for four years. Johnny (Al Pacino) has just been released from jail, where he spent 18 months for attempted fraud.

Arriving in the Big Apple looking for work, Johnny is hired as a short order cook at the Apollo by its kindly proprietor, Nick (Hector Alizondo). He soon proves to be a flirt, joshing with all the waitresses, and after a while tries to ask Frankie out, showering her with compliments, gifts and reasons why she should give in to his advances. She refuses, but he won't be put off and she finally agrees.

This could be the beginning of a beautiful friendship, as Johnny's epic, obsessive courtship slowly begins to wear her down. But wait . . . Frankie reveals that she is still recovering from the emotional trauma inflicted on her by a previous lover, and her reluctance to continue the new relationship causes friction between her and Johnny at work. Will she ever find a place for him in her heart and home?

Once described as 'the meat and potatoes of big budget movie entertainment', this beautiful poignant and romantic comedy is based on Terrence McNally's award-winning off-Broadway play Frankie and Johnny in the Clair de Lune, and boasts a super soundtrack including the Doobie Brothers' What a Fool Believes, Love Shack by the B52s and the title track performed by Terence Trent D'Arby.

Directed by Garry Marshall of Pretty Woman fame, the movie also stars Kate Nelligan and Nathan Lane ■

Excellent!

BILL S. PRESTON and Theodore 'Ted' Logan return for more crazy adventures in the imaginative sequel Bill and Ted's Bogus Journey.

This time, instead of travelling through time the two buddies (Keanu Reeves and Alex Winter) take a trip to Hell when a pair of evil robots attempt to alter the destiny of the Universe by taking the real Bill and Ted's place, meanwhile consigning our heroes to the infernal netherworld.

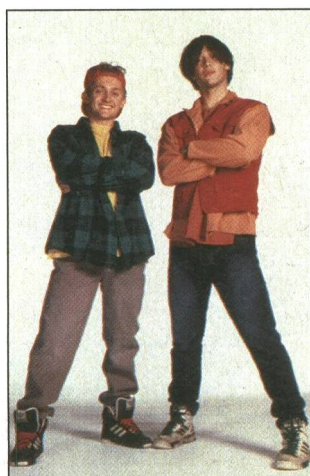

However, Bill and Ted manage to befriend the grim reaper, taking a quick trip to heaven and returning to Earth for a spectacular climactic showdown with their metallic alter-egos.

The original idea for Bill and Ted came to writers Chris Matheson and Ed Solomon in 1983 when improvising comedy with a group of UCLA students. ■

The big E for E Street

E STREET IS my favourite programme on TV, but I was dismayed to hear it is finishing.

I was in Australia in February and saw episodes that were at least two years ahead.

Sky have said it will finish by the end of the year – so how are they going to fit two years into seven months?

Julie Carter, Middlesex

● Sky Television informs us that production on E Street has already come to a halt.

However, as you correctly point out, the series as shown in Australia is running approximately two years ahead of United Kingdom transmissions. Sky's rights to the current series terminate in the Autumn, but they will be negotiating for the rights to the remaining series which is indeed running about two years behind UK transmissions.

The continuing voyages of Star Trek

ON BEHALF OF all fans of Star Trek: The Next Generation, I would like to thank and congratulate Sky One for purchasing the 4th, 5th and 6th seasons of the series, as well as Deep Space Nine.

Like most Trekkers, I would only have been able to see this excellent series on video, so you have saved us all a lot of money! Only one request: PLEASE stop talking over the end credits!

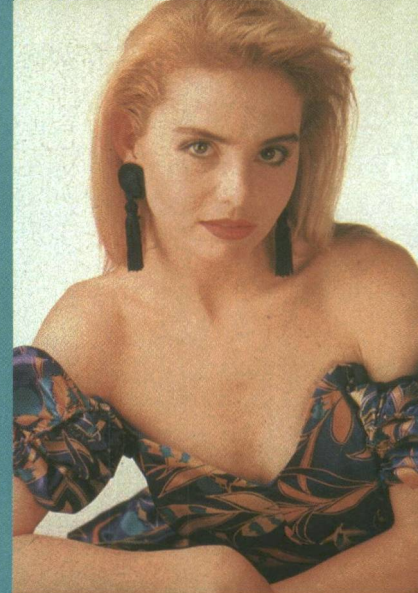

Miss C McLeod, Aberdeen

Got the pitcher?

LAST SUMMER I enjoyed many hours of American baseball on cable, but this year I find it has been replaced with that 'brain-dead' sport called basketball. Is there no intention of putting baseball back on?

Bill Hornby, Liverpool

● Yes! Starting this month Wire TV is showing two baseball programmes each week. The Week in Baseball (Thursdays at 8.15pm) is a magazine programme that looks at the week's events in baseball. It includes news and action on teams like the Boston Red Sox and the New York Mets. And at 7.00pm on Fridays you can see match highlights.

Second chance

I ENJOYED Straight Shooters: The Mamas and the Papas on The Discovery Channel on 25 April, but I have spoken to a number of people who somehow managed to miss this programme. Will it be repeated in future?

NJ Bellamy, Coventry

● The Discovery Channel will be showing Straight Shooters again on Friday 9 July at 10.30pm.

THIS MONTH'S HIGHLIGHTS ON SKY

JULY 1993

Frankie & Johnny

The British Television Premiere
on Sky Movies Plus
Sunday 18th July

All programmes listed are subject to alteration.

THIS July, SKY MOVIES PLUS will be screening the British Television premiere of An American Tail: Fievel Goes West, the sequel to the original 1986 Spielberg animation blockbuster. The adventures of the Mousekowitz family continue when they move to the Old West and Fievel teams up with a dozy but wise sheriff (voiced by James Stewart). The characters are brought to life by a wide range of distinctive voices including John Cleese, Dom DeLuise and Amy Irving.

Also making it's British Television debut this month is the powerful romantic comedy, Frankie and Johnny. Al Pacino and Michelle Pfeiffer star in the screen adaption of the award-winning play, which tells the tale of a cook at a diner (Pacino) who falls in love with a waitress (Pfeiffer).

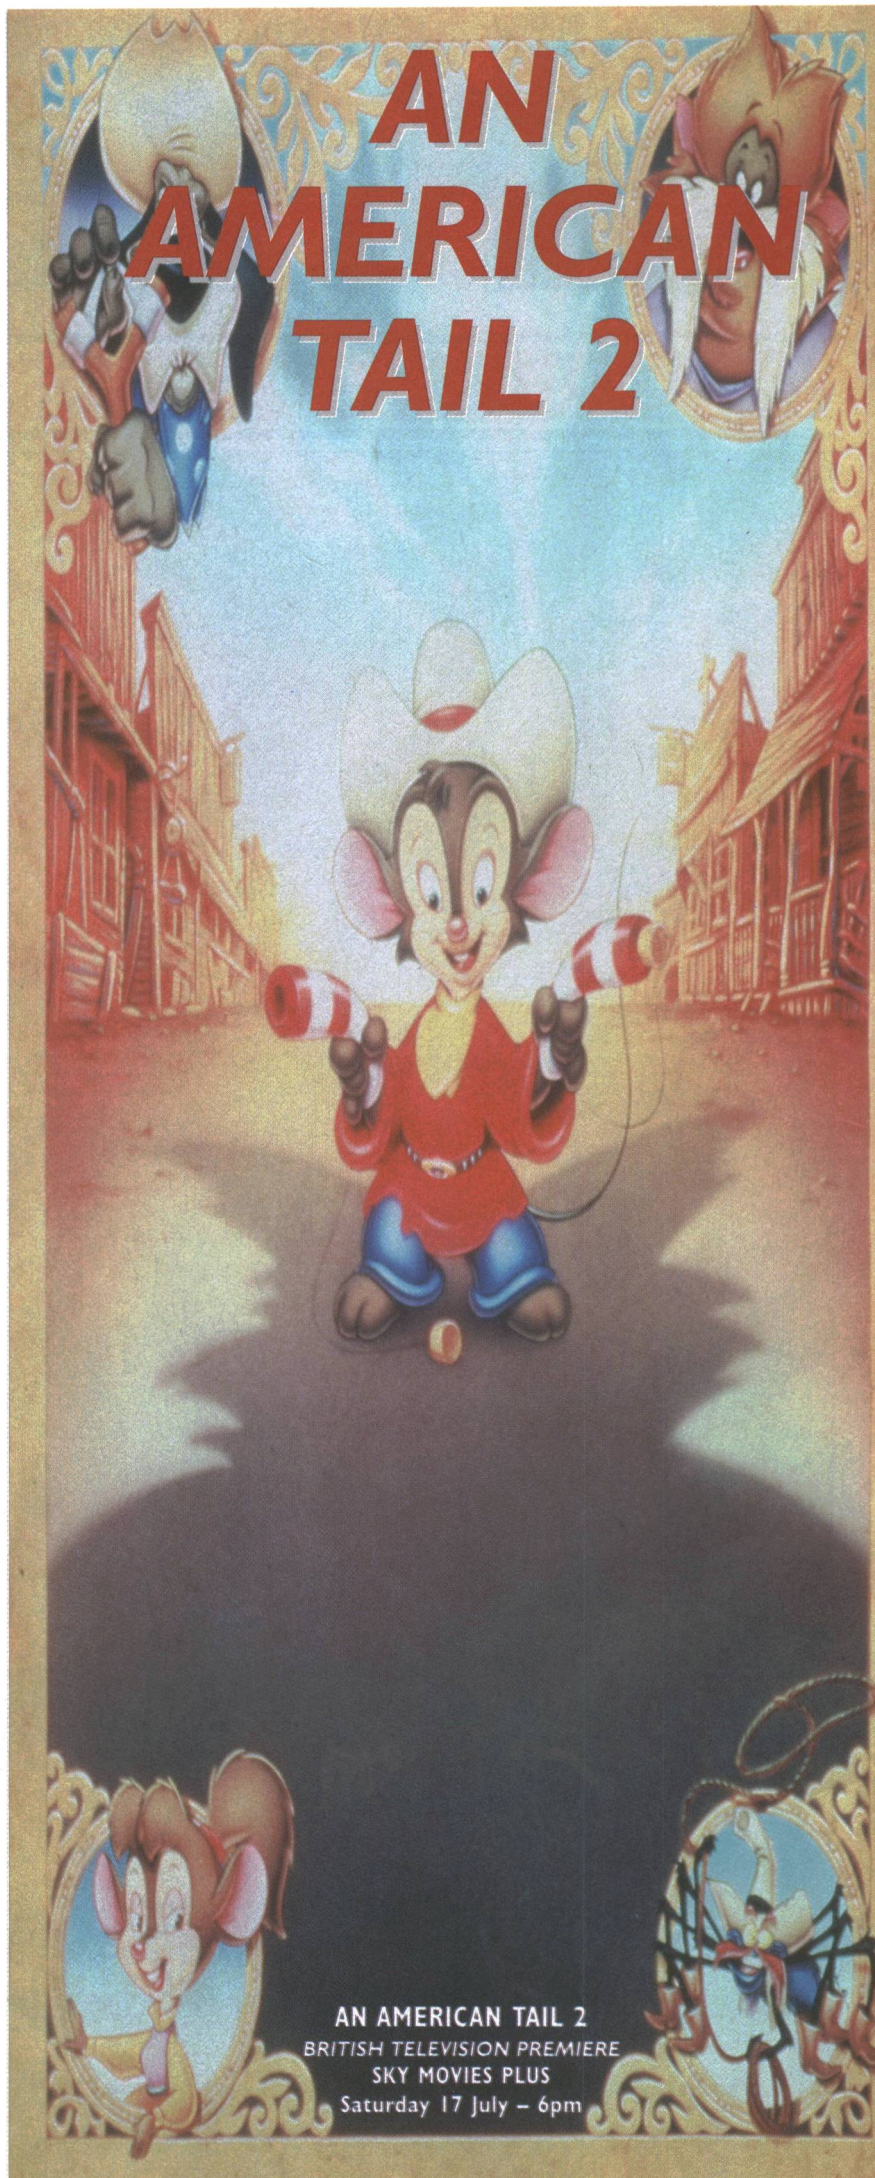

Billy Bathgate is a gangster drama set in the Depression-era. Billy is a street-wise, ambitious New York teenager, played by newcomer Loren Dean, who joins the gang of Dutch Schultz (Dustin Hoffman), the most feared and respected figure in the city's criminal underworld.

Kathleen Turner stars in the title role of the exciting crime thriller, V.I. Warshawski, making it's British Television debut this month. She plays a tough Chicago private eye, who becomes involved in the hunt for the murderer of a young girl's father.

As part of Sky's Sylvester Stallone season this month, SKY MOVIES GOLD are screening five Stallone films, beginning with First Blood, where Stallone stars as the haunted Vietnam veteran Rambo, and rounds off with the Oscar-winning Rocky series.

Sky's season of "Summer Loving" features Love Story on Sky Movies Gold, the classic weepie starring Ryan O'Neal and Ali McGraw, whose idyllic romance ends in tragedy.

Making its debut on Sky Movies Gold in July is Hair, the musical set in the late 60's about a group of New York hippies, living through the flower power era and having to face the impending threat of being drafted to fight in Vietnam.

THERE's three hilarious comedies making their debut on THE MOVIE CHANNEL in July.

In the zany comedy, What About Bob? Bill Murray stars as a helpless neurotic who becomes completely attached to his arrogant psychiatrist, played by Richard Dreyfuss. When Bob follows Marvin on his summer vacation, he latches himself onto the doctor's family - now Bob feels great, but it looks like the doctor is the one who needs therapy!

Also making its British Television debut is Bill & Ted's Bogus Journey, starring Keanu Reeves and Alex Winter, once again teaming up as teenage buddies, in the sequel to Bill & Ted's Excellent Adventure. This time, their crazy adventure takes them to Hell where they befriend the Grim Reaper before visiting Heaven and then making a spectacular return to Earth.

Michael Oliver is Junior, the adopted "son from Hell" in Problem Child 2, premiering this July on The Movie Channel. Still creating havoc, he moves to a new town where he meets his match in Trixie, the young daughter of the woman his dad (John Ritter) is romancing. She turns out to be more mischevious than he is and the result is twice as funny as the original movie.

This month, SKY MOVIES GOLD features the 1954 melodrama, Elephant Walk, starring Elizabeth Taylor as the English wife of a Ceylon tea plantation owner. The definite highlight of the movie is the concluding scene of stampeding elephants.

July's Modern Classics slot on Sky Movies Gold is screening the 1974 thriller, The Conversation, starring Gene Hackman. The film is considered to be one of the finest of the 70's and follows the investigation of a seemingly routine incident of marital infidelity which develops into a case of conspiracy.

The 1957 screwball comedy, Desk Set stars Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn. He's an efficiency expert sent to improve the performance of her department and the initial conflict between the couple develops into an inevitable romance.

SKY SPORTS adds yet another brand new sport to its line-up for July.

July 6th marks the start of coverage of Major League Baseball. The show will include highlights of the previous week's games, featuring the best actions and interviews with top players and coverage of a selected match of the week taken from both the American and National Leagues. Every Tuesday evening Sky Sports will follow the teams from each league as they battle for top place to play in the World Series in October, which will be shown exclusively live on Sky Sports.

There are special One-Day International cricket matches this July, featuring some of the greatest names in Test cricket.

Ian Botham's International Cricket Challenge will be shown live from Hove, as Botham captains an impressive England line-up against a Rest of the World XI team led by fierce rival Viv Richards.

Jesmond, the County Ground of Northumberland, hosts two one-day internationals between England and a Rest of the World XI on the 13th and 14th July. The England team will feature five former England captains - Gower, Gatting, Botham, Lamb and Stewart while their opponents will include Courtney Walsh and Wasim Akram, with Viv Richards again captaining the side.

It's war this July when Australia meet New Zealand for the Bledisloe Cup being shown exclusively live on Sky Sports from Carrisbrook. Arguably the world's two greatest Rugby Union sides, so far New Zealand have beaten Australia 54 times to their 20 wins, with four matches drawn. The cup is decided over the best of three matches and last year's event was a closely fought battle which the Wallabies won 2-1.

Other events not to be missed on Sky Sports in July include the UEFA Under 18 European Football Championships, golf coverage of the Sprint Western Open, Seniors Open and Ameritech Seniors plus twice-weekly evening horse racing in The Winning Post.

SKY ONE's top rating video game show, Games World reaches the Finals stage in July in a special show on Sunday 25th.

The Games World Final will feature the top five contestants on the leader board from the present series of "Beat the Elite" shows who will compete in the "Fight Night" Final. Challengers will be whittled down to leave one ultimate eliminator champion who will test his skills against three Videators and play the special Champions edition of Save the Maiden.

The immensely popular science-fiction space adventure series, Battlestar Gallactica comes to Sky One from July. It follows the last group of humans in the intergalactic colony on board the space ship, which is more than a mile long. Space wars, laser battles and out-of-this-world special effects add to the excitement of the series which stars Lorne Greene as Commander Adama with Dirk Benedict as Starbuck.

Civil Wars is a new drama series beginning on Sky One, starring Mariel Hemingway as an ambitious lawyer who runs a small Manhattan divorce firm.

John Houseman stars as the overbearing Professor Kingsfield in the critically-acclaimed series, Paper Chase, about student life at a prestigious Eastern University law school. Also starring James Stephen as James T Hart, an outstanding student who still manages to find time for romance in between attending seminars and studying.

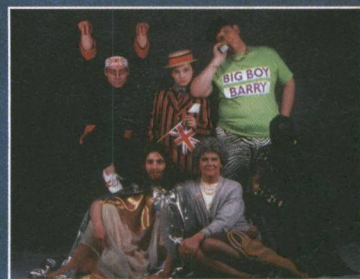

Mystery and intrigue are the key ingredients in a new action adventure series, Stingray. Based in Los Angeles, Stingray (Nick Mancuso) is a loner, who helps those in need, refusing monetary payment. Called Stingray after his black '65 Corvette, his true identity is a mystery.

GOALS! GOALS! GOALS!

YOUR chance to win a video featuring
101 of the very best goals from the F.A.
Premier League season 1992-93.

Over 300 goals were scored during the inaugural F.A. Premier League season, and Sky Sports have compiled 101 of the very best on to the video GOALS! GOALS! GOALS!

Sky Sports give you the chance to win a copy of GOALS! GOALS! GOALS! - which currently retails at £10.99 each - so that you can in turn enjoy those moments that shaped an historic year of British football, again and again!

To win, just answer the following question:

Who are the teams newly promoted to the F.A. Premier League for the 1993-94 season?

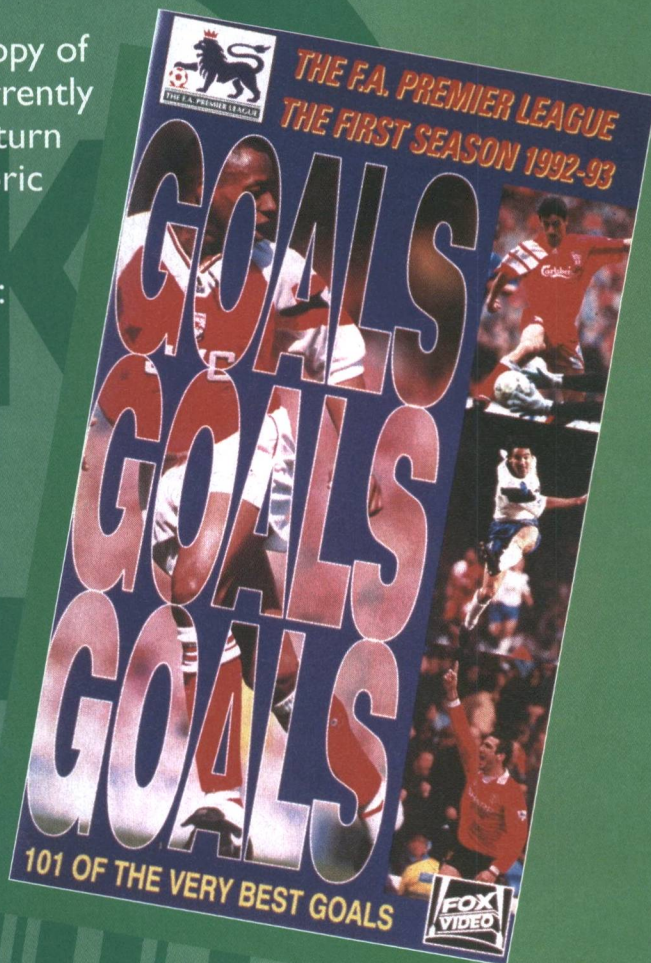

All correct entries will be entered into a draw. The first 100 correct entries drawn will receive a copy of the video GOALS! GOALS! GOALS!

Entries should be on a postcard, stating clearly your name and address.

Send your entries to:

Here's looking at you, Bogey

Humphrey Bogart
Film
Bravo Season

THE MALTESE FALCON

1941: After the death of his partner, private eye Sam Spade (Bogey) is dragged into a deadly quest for the priceless statuette of the title, encountering murder, intrigue, Mary Astor, Sidney Greenstreet and Peter Lorre. Director John Huston's masterpiece delights with a film noir world of betrayal and a host of bizarre characterisations.

Bravo: Monday 19th 9.30pm

CASABLANCA

1942: Bogey, as elusive and laconic bar owner Rick, has had a tragic past and wallows in cynical self-pity until confronted by an old flame (Ingrid Bergman) who deserted him in Paris years before. Great support from Sidney Greenstreet, Peter Lorre, slimey Claude Rains and character actor SZ 'Cuddles' Sakall. Dooley Wilson sings As Time Goes By.
Bravo: Tuesday 20th 9.30pm

KEY LARGO

1948: As an embittered war veteran, Bogey gets into trouble in Florida with dastardly Edward G Robinson and his bunch of gangsters. Claire Trevor won an Oscar for her fabulous performance as a disillusioned, drink-sodden gangster's moll.

Bravo: Wednesday 21st 9.30pm

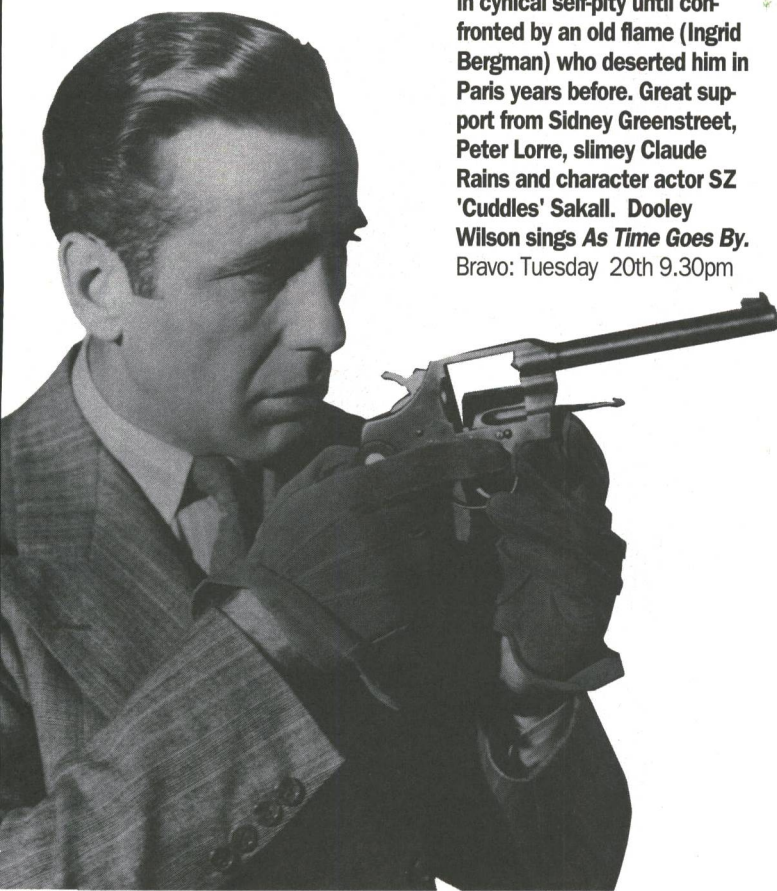

TO HAVE AND HAVE NOT

1948: Bogey plays a tough American fishing boat captain who runs a charter service in wartime Martinique. At first stubbornly neutral, he finally decides to help the Free French because of his love for club singer Bacall, seen here in her electrifying screen debut.
Bravo: Thursday 22nd, 9.30pm

THE TREASURE OF THE SIERRA MADRE

1948: Bogie stars as greed-crazed Fred C Dobbs, who turns on his chums while prospecting for gold in Mexico. His compadres are played by director John Huston's father Walter and the highly underrated Tim Holt. Sometime Tarzan Bruce Bennett plays a rival prospector, the young Robert Blake is a cheeky Mexican boy and Huston himself plays an American tourist. The original story was written by the mysterious actor and anarchist B Traven.

Bravo: Friday 23rd 9.30pm

The Doris Day Show

SLOT: Saturdays at 5.30pm on Bravo

STARRING: Doris Day as Doris Martin

SCREENED: September 1968 to September 1973

STORYLINE: The series revolves around Doris Martin, an attractive widow and a capable journalist.

Along with her two sons Billy and Toby, Doris moves to live with her father Buck on a farm in Marin County near San Francisco.

Here her life takes on a new exciting dimension when she lands a job with the cosmopolitan magazine Today's World, eventually becoming a staff writer and edging closer to the image of the urban career girl popularised by Mary Tyler Moore.

Other characters include editor Mr Nicholson, played by McLean Stevenson, assistant editor Ron Harvey, played by Paul Smith, restaurateurs the Paluccis and Lord Nelson the dog.

Naturally, the hit theme tune to the series, Whatever Will Be, Will Be (Que Sera Sera) was sung by the star herself.

EPILOGUE: After five seasons the series mysteriously disappeared. ■

HUMPHREY BOGART

Born: Humphrey DeForest Bogart on 23 January 1899 in New York City

Career: Humphrey Bogart acquired the scarred face and partly paralysed upper lip that were to become his trademark while serving in the Navy during World War I.

His first break came in 1935 as gangster Duke Mantee in the Broadway production of The Petrified Forest. When the play was filmed, leading player Leslie Howard demanded that Bogart again be given the part. The studio agreed, the film was a tremendous success and Bogart became a star.

He won an Oscar for The African Queen in 1951.

● Best movies: The Petrified Forest, High Sierra, The Maltese Falcon, Casablanca, To Have and Have Not, The Big Sleep, The Treasure of the Sierra Madre, Key Largo, The African Queen.

● Romances: Married four times to actresses Helen Menken, Mary Phillips, Mayo Methot and Lauren Bacall.

● Quotes: 'I made more lousy pictures than any actor in history.' 'The trouble with the world is that everybody in it is about three drinks behind.'

● Died: Of cancer in 1957.

FUTURE TENSE

There's no time like the future and 'Cable Guide' is looking ahead to an exciting couple of months for science-fiction fans. 'Star Trek: Deep Space Nine' (below) is set to take over from the present run of 'The Next Generation' on Sky One (Patrick Stewart interview overleaf). Super Channel has a season of cult sci-fi movies (page 36). And as with all good time travels, there's a step back in time – to the early 1970s – with UK Gold's Time Lord, Jon Pertwee (page 35). Keep watching the skies!

'It's life, Jim, but not as we know it!'

Star Trek: Deep Space Nine

DR MCCOY'S famous exclamation to Captain James T Kirk would certainly be heard if they had ever seen STAR TREK: DEEP SPACE NINE, the second sequel to their original Star Trek voyages.

Deep Space Nine, with its amazing special effects and some familiar faces from The Next Generation, has been a huge hit in America. It is likely to reach Sky One's screens in August.

The stories take place in the 24th century and follow the adventures of a team of Starfleet officers who take command of a remote alien space station on the edge of a new frontier.

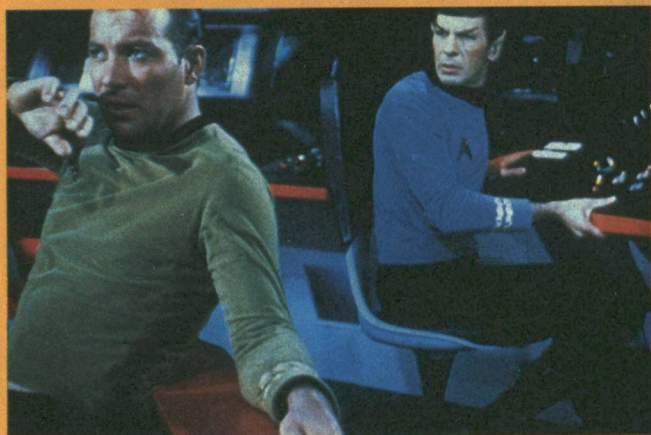

Designated Deep Space Nine, the space station is located near the mouth of a newly discovered 'wormhole', a phenomenon that provides a shortcut to a distant, unexplored quadrant of the galaxy.

Travellers are drawn here, and, with hostile alien empires on all sides, Deep Space Nine becomes the strategic post in the galaxy.

Commander Benjamin Sisko is the Starfleet commander-in-charge of Deep Space Nine. He is a single parent to his son, Jake, since his wife was killed in an encounter with the Borg in one of the bloodiest battles ever recorded in Federation history. The Security Officer is a shape-shifting alien called Odo. His natural shape takes the form of a gelatinous liquid, but he can take any form he desires. Not surprisingly he takes on humanoid shape to assimilate and function on the space station.

ENTERPRISE CULTURE

Kirk (William Shatner) and Spock (Leonard Nimoy)

IN 1966 TV producer Gene Roddenberry created a science-fiction series called Star Trek. Nearly 30 years later his compelling vision has expanded to a cult of world-wide proportions. The series faced cancellation after its first season due to low ratings. Only after a million diehards wrote to the NBC network was the series salvaged.

★ In 1973 NBC launched a cartoon series using the voices of the original cast. A series of paperbacks was launched six years later.

★ 1979 saw the release of the film Star Trek: The Motion Picture. The film's success inspired five sequels.

★ In 1987 a new series, Star Trek: The Next Generation, was embraced by fans, whose club magazine goes to 105,000 subscribers.

Chekov (Walter Koenig) and Sulu (George Takei)

★ The first Star Trek convention was held in 1972 at New York's Statler Hilton. 3,000 Star Trek conventions are held worldwide each year.

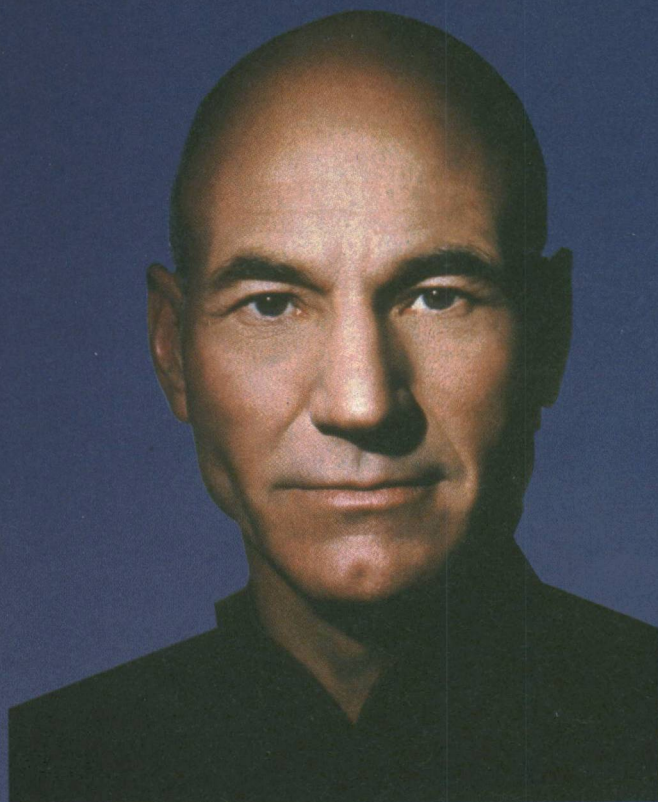

Uhura (Nichelle Nichols)

★ In 1988 Hollywood's Universal Studios opened a $7 million attraction entitled The Star Trek Adventure, and 1993 sees the opening of entertainment centres which will incorporate The Next Generation into virtual-reality games.

★ For VIPs in the Los Angeles area, the set of The Next Generation has become a must-see. Former President Ronald Reagan, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Colin Powell and former Vice-President Dan Quayle's family have all visited the bridge of the Enterprise.

★ Scripts are currently being written for the movie Star Trek VII: The Next Generation. It should go into production around the end of the year.

Star

Patrick Stewart tells 'Cable Guide' about the Generation fame, his favourite 'Star Trek' episodes and why the series is loved by millions of viewers

Star Trek: The Next Generation

Weekdays
5.00pm,
10.30pm

WANT A LARGE car and it must be an automatic,' said Patrick Stewart while ordering a hire car in London recently. 'I can't cope with gears now.'

And this is the man who usually drives the Starship Enterprise!

His six years in America leading the Star Trek crew in the blockbuster hit The Next Generation have meant that this most English of actors has had to get used to an alien lifestyle.

It's baseball now instead of cricket, the beach instead of his beloved English countryside and 12-hour days in the Paramount studio instead of Shakespearean roles at Stratford.

When Cable Guide met Patrick

man

he was on a brief visit to London. 'On the two nights I've been back I spent one night at Wembley watching the England international and the other at the theatre.'

'I don't miss cities very much and I don't miss the Conservative government. But friends and family are very much in my thoughts.'

When producer Gene Roddenberry offered The Next Generation's leading role of Captain Jean-Luc Picard to Patrick in 1987 many people felt the original and legendary Star Trek voyages were an impossible act to follow.

Even Patrick confesses that stepping into Captain Kirk's boots was 'just another job'.

That soon changed. 'I have become prouder and prouder of the show and what it achieves.'

Excellent storytelling and acting are part of The Next Generation's successful formula, says Patrick, who adds, 'The technology is state-of-the-art, which is one advantage we have over the original.'

'But it's the positive view we have of the future that keeps people watching.'

That positive view attracted Whoopi Goldberg to appear in the series as Guinan.

She told Patrick that she had loved watching Kirk and his crew as a child in New York. Seeing a black woman, Lt Uhura, respected in a position of authority had made her feel that at least in the 24th century, as she put it, one of us had made it.

'A lot of people feel we are going to make it,' Patrick says. 'We will live in a world, certainly so far as this solar system is concerned, that will have banished poverty, homelessness, war, crime and established equality, justice and peace.'

If this sounds like a speech of Captain Picard's, that is probably because Patrick has written some of his character's dialogue himself. He admires Picard and his own interests and beliefs coincide with the captain's.

'I've brought in a lot about what I believe in and feel. In one episode a writer generously allowed me to write a speech about slavery. Data the android was being investigated to discover whether he was an object to be possessed or a sentient creature. An excellent episode!'

Patrick's favourite Next Generation story is called The Offspring.

'It's about Data creating an android child for himself and it discussed the morality of creating life.'

There was another called 11001001, which won't surprise you to know was about a race called Binaris, aliens who had evolved through their computer society so that they had become like computer digits. That was classic Star Trek.

Two other recent episodes are also close to Patrick's heart. In Inner Light the captain is hit by a beam on the ship and appears to be dying. In two or three minutes he lives an entire lifetime in another world.

Chain of Command sees Picard tortured on an alien planet. 'The writers and myself worked closely with Amnesty International, of which I've been a life-long member. It is a powerful episode. It was also important for me because it gave me the chance to show Picard with literally everything stripped away because I appear naked for most of the episode. They remove his clothing, all badges of rank, all marks of civilisation before submitting him to this horrific torture.'

'Like many Star Trek episodes it deals with 20th-century conditions in a 24th-century context.'

Who's Who?

Jon Pertwee used to be Dr Who between 1970 to 1974. Martial arts, gadgetry and the Whomobile were among the many features he added to this cult character

UK GOLD

Dr Who

Weekdays 11.30pm

A FORMER CIRCUS performer, vaudeville, cabaret entertainer and star of radio, films and television, Jon Pertwee was the first actor to actually apply for the role of the Doctor, only to find that he was already second on the BBC shortlist!

The first Doctor to be seen in colour, Jon immediately made the role his own. 'I have always been an adventurous soul,' he observed, 'and I wanted the Doctor to be a man of action. I introduced the use of the martial art Aikido and was keen to include my love of motorcycles, speedboats, fast cars and gadgetry in general wherever possible. Two cars were built to my specifications. Bessie, the mock-Edwardian veteran, which was in complete contrast to my "Whomobile", probably the most revolutionary vehicle ever made for the series. It looked just like a flying saucer!'

He disliked one adversary above the rest: 'I always loathed the Daleks. I thought they were boring.'

In addition to a continuous roster of national and international stage and TV appearances, Jon remains involved with the Doctor, touring the US regularly with the BBC Doctor Who Convention.

You can see Jon Pertwee as The Doctor on the following dates: Invasion of the Dinosaurs: weekdays from Monday 5th; The Green Death: weekdays from Monday 12th; The Monster of Peladon: weekdays from Tuesday 20th.

Dr Who Competition

Cable Guide has copies of The Terror of the Autons from 1971 (sale price £10.99) to give to the first 10 readers who correctly answer this simple question: Who was the fourth Doctor? Answers (plus name and address) on a postcard to Dr Who Competition, Cable Guide, Communications House, 5 Factory Lane, Croydon CR9 3RA. SUPER CHANNEL If you've had trouble spotting UFOs during these long summer evenings, tune in to the Super Channel's cult sci-fi season. Aliens that look like men in rubber suits and wobbly special effects will transport you to some very strange worlds indeed. Far out!

FLIGHT TO MARS Monday 12th 10.00pm

THIS IS ONE of the pioneering sci-fi sagas from the early Fifties (1951) in which a crew from Earth venture out to the red planet only to find that all the Martians speak American! This is because they have been listening to our radio. The Martian leader is friendly at first but his guests discover that he intends to use their spaceship for a return trip to conquer Earth (he wants to exterminate those Radio 1 disc jockeys). The un-special effects make Thunderbirds look grippingly real while the acting is less animated. But this is classic sci-fi from those pre-ET days when paranoia ruled among Hollywood's film-makers. Starring Marguerite Chapman, Cameron Mitchell and Arthur Franz.

STARCROSSED Sunday 18th 7.00pm

IN THIS ADVENTURE a female alien called Mary (I) finds herself in trouble on a planet rife with appalling problems, teenage monsters and wars – modern-day Earth. Wandering into a downtown bar in a busy American town she is befriended by Joey, who takes her for a foreigner. After the pair get stargazed about each other Mary tells Joey that she is from another planet and is in danger from two agents who want to kill her. Great non-stop action, smashing special effects and plenty of plot twists. Starring James Spader and Belinda Bauer. (1985)

UNKNOWN WORLD Monday 19th 10.00pm

ANOTHER VINTAGE sci-fi journey down paranoid lane. A massive mechanical mole, known as the Cyclotram, is built to burrow deep into the Earth's crust. The drilling machine is set to maximum power because it must carve out a new haven for survivors of a post-nuclear war era. This is a movie that is packed with bomb fears of the Fifties but makes enjoyable viewing that moves along at Cyclotram speed. Starring Bruce Kellogg, Marilyn Nash and Victor Kilain. (1951)

PHANTOM FROM SPACE Monday 26th 10.00pm

THAT THIS MOVIE'S Thing from Another World is invisible is probably explained by the director's almost invisible budget. Every expense is spared to bring this wacky film to the silver screen. It's the tale of the alien that looks like nothing on Earth being stranded here. With only limited means of communication the bewildered being must turn to humans for help. A must for those who get high on cult sci-fi. Starring Ted Cooper, Rudolph Anders, Norren Nash. (1953)

FILMS

55 Days in Peking
 The Movie Channel
 12 noon
It's hot and the natives are restless. Well, wouldn't you be with Charlton Heston, David Niven and Ava Gardner in town. Ms Gardner does her sultry sub-continental seduction stuff while grown men melt around her. Flora Robson makes a great Chinese villain as this epic depicts the Boxers rebellion in Peking at the start of the century. Worth watching if it had lasted 55 hours.

GENERAL

A Taste of Japan
 The Learning Channel 1.30pm
My tastebuds are going into overdrive as this cookery series from the orient gets underway with master chef Minoru Yoneda. For starters there are tips on deep fried dishes and dressed salads. Guess what's for dinner tonight, dear.

SPORT

Horse Racing
 Sky Sports 7.00pm
Try and sit on your hands and watch rather than bet with the missus on the winner of the next race - you'll only end up doing the washing up again. Gee-gees from Haydock and Nottingham go to the tape in eight live races.

FILMS

Babe Ruth
 Sky Movies Plus
 8.00pm
One of a slew of movies about baseball's Sultan of Swat which were released a couple of years ago to commemorate the great man's feats. This is not the version starring John (Roseanne) Goodman and is probably all the better for it because who wants to keep thinking of Roseanne Barr when you're trying to appreciate the New York Yankees latest World Series victory.

GENERAL

Santa Barbara
 Wire TV 6.30pm
CC Capwell has sired six children in three marriages and is the most powerful patriarch in Santa Barbara - sounds like all the foundations for a soap opera are in place. Three days a week on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays will see the Capwell capers unfold before your very eyes.

SPORT

Copa America Football
 Eurosport 1.30pm
It might be tape-delayed, but it's as good as live at this time in the afternoon. It's the South American soccer championships which usually provides the kinds of goals you only see on the compilation videos. This is the second semi-final with the final itself absolutely live on Sunday night. Just hope for Brazil vs Argentina.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Pride and Prejudice
Bravo 9.25pm

For all those 'O' level students who might still need a touch of Jane Austen revision, here's the perfect cure. Lawrence (dear, dear Larry) Olivier steals the show as Darcy, the man of Jane's many dreams in this 19th century forerunner to Blind Date - five sisters are looking for husbands and they do it without Cilla! Oh, and for the boys, Greer Garson is unimaginably discreet and delicious.

FILMS

Bill & Ted's Bogus Journey
The Movie Channel
8.00pm
Now, personally, I'm a big Wayne's World fan,
but these excellent
dudes will suffice for an evening of merrymaking. It's No 2
in the Bill and Ted series as our dudes of destruction go totally underground - to Hell,
that is. The best
scenes are still where
the boys outdo the
Grim Reaper dude for game expertise at
things like Twister!
Truly a helluva film and just think what it's done for Keanu Reeves
(alias Ted).

GENERAL

Battlestar Galactica
Sky One 1.00pm
It's not as flashy as Star Wars and not as philosophical as Star
Trek, but science
fiction junkies will still lie back in the
armchair and love it.
Lorne (Bonanza)
Greene heads a top
class cast in the series
of space adventures which starts today. In a battleship a mile long, there is plenty of room for action.

SPORT

Rugby Union - Australia vs Tonga
Sky Sports 5.55am
Check the time,
cobbers, because that is AM. But it's live
rugger featuring the world champs and
South Sea Islanders
who run and throw like they were born to it. A big pot of coffee is all you need - now don't chicken out and watch
the repeat at 10.05am!

Sunday continues
overleaf...

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

There are few more talented comedy writer/actor/directors than Gene Wilder and even when he's not on GREAT form, he's still worth an hour or so of your telly time. In this spoof of the great Valentino, Wilder plays a baker named Rudi Valentine who rises to Hollywood for the dough and the dolls as the latest sex symbol. Wilder? A sex symbol? Well, I said he was a talented actor. Make-up!!

Sky Movies Gold
8.00pm
The last play (for a while, anyway) of this 1976 classic which made a movie hero out of our Sly Stallone and launched a thousand "I wanna be a contender!" take-offs. The boxing no-hoper who gets his chance at the world title is not so preposterous these days as the real champs search out chumps and we all hope the cocky so-and-so's get their comeuppance. After all, if Rocky could do it...

GENERAL

Spies
The Discovery Channel 8.00pm
"The lame dog has jack-knifed in front of the red gate." Ah ha! Now that must be spy speak for something. From Mata Hari to Mossad, from KGB to FBI, it's all here as we search for the truth behind the world of espionage in a 26-part series which starts today.

SPORT

Major League Baseball
Sky Sports 6.00pm
Thank goodness! For all us lovers of the curve ball and the sacrifice fly, it's time to be taken out to the ball park for a regular two hours of highlights and news followed by a game of the week. I feel a seventh inning stretch coming on!

FILMS

The Getaway
 Sky Movies Gold
 10.00pm
Steve McQueen in classic chase action as a model prisoner denied parole and who then decides a bank heist with a corrupt politician is the way out. Well, it would be if Ali (later Mrs McQueen) MacGraw's plan didn't go wrong. Yet, action lovers, then we wouldn't be treated to the getaway to end them all. Blood is spilt aplenty thanks to goremelster Sam Peckinpah in the director's chair.

GENERAL

Dinosaur!
 The Discovery Channel 9.00pm
Bigger than Hero Turtles, cuter than Thunderbirds, the days of the dinosaur are upon us. Kids love those big guys and this award-winning programme narrated by Christopher (Superman) Reeve asks questions we all need answers to. Like is the Loch Ness Monster a pleisiosaur? Or maybe, what on earth is a pleisiosaur?

SPORT

Gaelic Football and Hurling
 Wire TV 8.15pm
These are the kinds of sports that you end up watching when the remote control batteries go dead and you can't be bothered to get off the sofa. Having said that, it suddenly becomes addictive and you can't wait until next week to find out how Munster, Leinster and the rest have gotten on.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

- 12.00 FILM: WHISTLE DOWN THE WIND
Hayley Mills
On a lonely Lancashire farm three children discover a man hidden in their barn. 1961

FILMS

Whistle Down The Wind
UK Gold 12 midnight
Such a simple idea, such a great movie. Hayley Mills was just a child in 1961 when she and her two friends discovered Alan Bates in the barn of a wind-blown Lancashire farm. Now WE know Bates is a baddie, but the kids think he's Jesus Christ. A beautifully sculpted piece of cinema by director Bryan Forbes.

GENERAL

Top of the Pops
UK Gold 11.00pm
Remember December 1973? Well, this might jump start a few brain cells with flares and rib-hugging sweaters in abundance as Tony Blackburn introduces a classic TOTP show from that era so many of us want to forget. OK, so Elton, The Faces and Slade we all expect. But Milligan and Nesbitt? TOTP is now a nightly series to give us fashion gurus nightmares.

SPORT

Rhubarb
Bravo 10.45pm
Not strictly sport, but what the heck. This is the Open of golf comedy as Eric Sykes, Harry Secombe and Jimmy Edwards perform the A-Z of golf gamesmanship. The timing of Sykes is better than any Nick Faldo drive and the silent characterisations are middle-of-the-fairway stuff. You won't see Faldo and co employ these tactics, but maybe golf needs livening up a bit.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

FILMS

Crazy People
The Movie Channel
6.00pm
 Dudley Moore tells it like it is. No, really. No lies, no compromises, just the straight truth. Now this might be OK in theory, but not in the world of advertising. So when our Dud stops telling porkies just to please the customers, then he's committed to an asylum and his career really starts to take off with his fellow patients dreaming up the slogans. If you get bored with this kind of one-joke film, there's always Darryl Hannah to look at.

FILMS

Billy Bathgate
Sky Movies Plus
10.00pm
Plenty of stars, plenty of blood, plenty of reasons to watch. Dustin Hoffman stars as gangland's Dutch Schultz who takes on our Billy (newcomer Loren Dean) under his wing only for the youngster to chase the old man's girl (Nicole Kidman). Now that deserves more than just a slap on the wrists and, my goodness me, Billy gets it. Good depression-era sets and suits make it all the more believable.

GENERAL

Stingray
Sky One 11.00pm
No, not the Gerry Anderson puppet version, but an adventure series about an elusive loner living by a simple code and helping those in need. The titular hero drives a black 1965 Corvette and no one knows his real name. Maybe all will be revealed after a few episodes.

SPORT

British Grand Prix
Eurosport
There'll be no Red Five with Nigel Mansell as pilot this year, so we'll all be shouting for Damon Hill instead. Silverstone is the fastest race of the year and just be thankful you can watch live on TV and don't have to struggle for hours to get off the car park - that's the slowest race of the year.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

What About Bob?
The Movie Channel
8.00pm

Bill Murray drags his hangdog face and shoulder-sloped body through another load of laughs as the hypochondriac who has phobias that even his psychiatrist (Richard Dreyfuss) hasn't heard of. Bill attaches himself to Dreyfuss for round-the-clock advice and then finds that he gets closer to the psychiatrist's family than the doc himself. About as complicated as one of Dreyfuss's diagnoses - I review, therefore I am!

GENERAL

Paul McCartney Up-Close
MTV 7.00pm

FILMS

Necessary Roughness
 The Movie Channel 8.00pm
So many people have tried to make American football movies that you begin to wonder why they bother. Burt Reynolds did it in The Mean Machine and, although this gets close, a story of non-athletic students forming a winning gridiron squad is too fanciful. A female kicker? Pull-eeeeeze! Yet, you can still enjoy some of the on-the-field action. I'm going to.

GENERAL

Clarence
 UK Gold 10.30pm
Perhaps the most forgotten comedy series that Ronnie Barker has ever made. This short-sighted do-gooder just never caught on the way Fletcher and Arkwright did. But big Ron is such a talent and his jokes are ten times better than most even at their worst.

SPORT

Cricket - England vs Rest of the World
 Sky Sports 10.30am
If we can't beat countries one at a time, why not send them at us all at once. Live coverage from Durham won't have the white heat of the Ashes attention, but a win is a win in any game, so play up me boys!

Tuesday continues overleaf...

FILMS

Top Hat
 UK Gold 12 midnight
These midnight dates with UK Gold are becoming a habit. This used to have a Sunday afternoon feel about it, but I can take Astaire and Rogers any time of the day. Forget the plot, just appreciate the art - dance, camera work, dialogue, characterisation, music. It's a dream and probably Astaire's best and most loved film. The added joy is the manic Edward Everett Horton in the middle of a romantic comedy which has it all. Don't dare fall asleep.

GENERAL

Stone Monkey
 The Discovery Channel 8.00pm
Johnny Dawes is one of Britain's best young climbers who keeps us on the edge of our seats while he's on the edge of a cliff. This programme looks at his climbing career from boyhood to the kinds of climbs that make a man out of you.

SPORT

Rugby League
 Sky Sports 11.00pm
It never ceases to amaze me how tough this sport is. And it doesn't come any tougher than from the Australian State of Origin series which is the next best thing to sporting civil war as men born in Queensland take on guys from New South Wales. The winners are the ones still standing up after 80 minutes. This is the first of the three-match series

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

The Man Upstairs
Sky Movies Plus
8.00pm
An unlikely pairing of Katharine Hepburn and Ryan O'Neal get this 1991 comedy-drama into some shape. O'Neal is a ex-con who reminds Hepburn of her long-dead lover (NOT Spencer Tracey). Ms Hepburn is still a joy to watch even in her advanced years and brings that touch of class to the screen which her modern-day stars seem to miss.

FILMS

An American Tail: Fievel Goes West
Sky Movies Plus 6.00pm
A perfect piece for all the family to sit down to dinner with. One of a series of recent feature-length cartoons which have saved the genre from being merely memories. Fievel (couldn't they have thought of a better name?) is a mouse who Steven Spielberg invented five years earlier. This could be called Return of Fievel as he heads for the wild and wonderful west. The best part of the film has to be James Stewart's charming voice characterisation of the wise old sheriff.

GENERAL

Elton John Weekend
MTV 7.00am, 1.30pm and 12 midnight
Now a member of rock's royalty (even though his new hair doesn't remember any of his old toons) Reg has broken many rock records of the monetary and success nature. He's just celebrated his 24th hit on the trot - the most by any artist, even more than Elvis himself. So we can spare a weekend for the old boy, can't we?

SPORT

US PGA Seniors Golf
Sky Sports 9.00pm
There's an incredible $600,000 worth of prize money for this week's fat bellies at the Ameritech Senior Open. Day three live and, just think, only another 15 years and I can enter myself to earn a few bob.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

FILMS

Frankie and Johnny
Sky Movies Plus
8.00pm
Pacino and Pfeiffer together as a couple of world weary thirty (or even forty) somethings who get their acts together to the delight of everyone around them. Warm feelings abound thanks to Garry (Pretty Woman) Marshall's soft direction of the Al's courtship and Michelle's faltering policy of denial. You'll never put two spoons together in your cutlery drawer again without thinking of this movie.

GENERAL

Elizabeth R
UK Gold 9.00pm
Now that Liz II has just celebrated 40 years reign, it's even more relevant that we see how distant, distant ancestors set her up. Glenda Jackson looked suitably awful in this classic costume drama. Pale, poxy and not at all like a prospective parliamentary candidate.

SPORT

Motor Cycling
Sky Sports 10.30pm
The Czechoslovakian stage of the Superbike World Championships will feature British interest from Carl Fogerty and Terry Rymer. However, Italian Giancarlo Falappa is a more likely winner - but don't just take my word for it. Watch and find out.

FILMS

Scenes From A Mall
The Movie Channel
11.45pm
Woody Allen in a movie about marital discord? Have we got this right? Well, yes we have and it's a helluva lot funnier than the real thing. Bette Midler is Woody's unlikely partner as the two of them go mall-shopping to celebrate their sixteenth anniversary and end up admitting recent infidelities. And it doesn't end there, folks. This is the kind of spree that no mall should be without.

GENERAL

Civil Wars
Sky One 9.00pm
Poor old Mariel Hemingway. Here she is, an ambitious young lawyer in Manhattan, but she's loaded with problems - her partner's in a mental institution, her ex-husband owes her money, she has no social life and she spends her day ruining marriages. Just another day in the divorce lawyer's office is actually a new weekly show which is actually Ms Hemingway's TV series debut. And she chose THIS script?!

SPORT

Football - England vs Holland Under 18s
Sky Sports 7.00pm
Live coverage of the match from a championship being staged in Britain. The major nations don't always perform in this kind of tournament, though, so don't expect 1966 Revisited. Turkey won the last title, so who knows?!

Tuesday continues overleaf...

FILMS

A Farewell To Arms
Sky Movies Gold
6.00pm
A Hemingway wrote it, a Vidor directed it and a Hudson starred in it. Take a bow, Ernest, Charles and Rock. This 1957 re-make of the 1932 original has Rock as the ambulance driver falling for the nurse (Jennifer Jones) with all the emotion and lip-trembling that these two stars could muster.

GENERAL

A Traveller's Guide To The Orient
The Discovery Channel 10.30pm
First of a series from exotic locations in the Far East. This week we're off to Bangkok - now THAT'S a fun loving city. Don't be fooled by all those temples. The capital of Thailand has palaces, shopping and food to keep our minds off the more outrageous offerings.

SPORT

Football - England vs Spain Under 18s
Sky Sports 7.00pm
From the glamorous setting of Bescot Stadium in Walsall, West Midlands, comes another taste of the World Cup winners for the year 2000. No, I'm not talking about the Spaniards!

FILMS

Swimsuit
Super Channel
8.00pm
If you want to see the lovely Catherine Oxenburgh in a swimsuit, then this is the film for you. Catherine, who has given so much to the world of acting (NOT!), is seen here giving her body to the screen. Cyd Charrise adds some class to the proceedings as a swimwear manufacturer looks at almost every girl in the world (or so it seems) to find the perfect body. Guess where he finds it!

GENERAL

Games World Final
Sky One 7.00pm
No longer do kids make toys out of sticky back plastic and loo rolls. They're busy gaming and here is the ultimate programme for them as the top five contestants on the show's regular weekly leaderboard come together for the mother of all game-a-thons.

SPORT

Tour De France
Cycling
Eurosport 3.00am
And finally the ordeal is over as you freewheel down the Champs Elysees and into sporting history - yes, you've won the greatest test of sporting stamina there is. In your dreams! The real guys race to the finish live today.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Crooked Hearts
The Movie Channel
8.00pm
An intense drama for a Monday night, but what the heck. Student Peter Berg comes home from college after a year to find that tension is boiling over in the family home. There are some heavy rows, heated words and terrible tragedy to come.

GENERAL

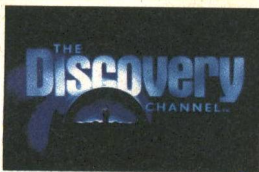

Naked Video
UK Gold 10.30pm
Many people used to complain that they couldn't understand the Scottish accents on this anarchic comedy show. How dare they. There's nay plainer speaker o' th'English language than Gregor (Hamlet ads) Fisher as Rab C Nesbitt.

SPORT

World Wrestling Federation
Sky Sports 6.00pm
It's my once-a-month glance at the theatre that is wrestling. Mind you, don't tell any of the beefcakes I said "theatre" or I'll be body slammed in no time.

FILMS

Come See The Paradise
The Movie Channel
12 midnight
The final playing of Alan (The Commitments) Parker's 1990 film about the love of an American union leader (Dennis Quaid) and his Japanese bride (Tamlyn Tomita). At any other time, things would have been rosy for the lovers, but post-Pearl Harbour and it's nothing but trouble. A good story well told - what else would you expect from Mr Parker?

GENERAL

Neil Young Special
MTV 7.30pm
It's good to hear great artists on MTV, but it's better when they devote time to the deserving like Neil. The Y in CSN&Y has never gotten the recognition that his fellow musicians felt he warranted. Two decades of work in 90 minutes are some kind of pay back.

SPORT

Superstars 1981
Sky Sports 11.00pm
Why did they stop making Superstars? I loved this show where sportsmen compete in different disciplines like footballers attempting to shoot straight (with pistols) and wimpy cricketers showing how they couldn't lift feathers (gym weights, actually)! Maybe it became a sport within sports, but it provided some classic moments of embarrassment as well as courage and skill.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

FILMS

Hair
Sky Movies Gold
10.00pm
Take a step back into the age of Aquarius, paint your face, put on those open-toed sandals and just feel the vibrations, baby. John Savage is a Vietnam draftee from the mid-West who runs into the New York hippie culture and gets more than flowers in his hair. Director Milos Forman would rather be remembered for One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, I fear.

GENERAL

Janet Jackson
Rockumentary
MTV 7.30pm
She's a girl who's in the news right now and not just as Michael's younger sister. Ms Jackson has her own funky stuff to strut and is highly successful at it. This half hour look at her career pre-empts a hits package of songs. A jolly night for Janet fans.

SPORT

Horse Racing
Sky Sports 7.00pm
Off to Epsom and Leicester this week for five races live hosted by Jeff Stelling and the incomparable A Guest.

Margaret Rutherford 1964
1.20 VIDEO BITES

FILMS

Robocop 2
Sky Movies Plus
10.00pm
Don't expect much different from Robocop 1, but who needs it. Peter Weller is the metallic law enforcer who partners lucky Nancy Allen on a crime crusade through Detroit. The film is essentially a series of shootouts with Robo and a crazy drug dealer who gets his own robotic powers for a slow-motion finale. This is a last play movie, so it's now or never.

GENERAL

The Paper Chase
Sky One 8.00pm
John Houseman is not the kind of actor to get involved in any old rubbish, so take a leaf out of his book and join this new series. Houseman is an autocratic professor in a prestigious east coast US university. Students provide the basis for drama as they try to survive law school.

SPORT

Show Jumping
Eurosport 7.00pm
Day one of the action from the European Championships in Gijon, France. No doubt David Broome will be sweeping up the medals for Britain - a little sporting joke to lighten a Thursday evening.

FILMS

The Conversation
Sky Movies Gold
8.00pm
There is no doubt that Gene Hackman is a great, great actor and Francis Ford Coppola is his equal when it comes to directing. This is one of the top handful of movies from the 1970s without a wasted line or frame. Gene is a surveillance expert who turns a routine case of marital infidelity into a compelling thriller of conspiracy.

GENERAL

Bon Jovi: The Hits
MTV 8.00pm
Just a part of the weekend of Jon's best and biggest hits. Only five albums into their chart-topping career and 30 million sold already. It's two years since their New Jersey album and now the latest - Keep The Faith - is featured long and loud.

SPORT

Rugby Union - Australia vs South Africa
Sky Sports 10.55am
What a feast of rugger July has been, so why not round it off with two more of the world's greatest teams going nip and tuck. Actually, they'll probably go hammer and tongs, but whatever the cliché, it should be a game of two halves and it's all live.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

CMT Europe

CMT Europe offers 24 hours a day of the very latest country music specifically for a European audience. It provides non-stop chart-topping hits and new video releases by such artists as Billy Ray Cyrus, Marty Stuart, Mary-Chapin Carpenter, Randy Travis and Alan Jackson

Screen TEST

From humble beginnings stuffing envelopes at TV-am to the racey, non-stop world of Wire TV, roving reporter Georgey Spanswick is always on the move. To find out what she is like, 'Cable Guide' pinned her down for a minute

What would you change about your personal appearance?

My bum – it follows me everywhere and enters a room five minutes after I've arrived!

With whom do you most like being?

Most of my time is spent with the film crew, so it's Mum at the moment. Also my good buddies and my geezer.

When have you been most happy?

Right now – travelling around the country with WIRE (What a diplomat or creep I am!).

When have you been least happy?

When they axed Crossroads (Terrible day. How I missed Amy Turtle and Miss Luke).

Under what circumstances would you be dishonest?

When answering question 3!

What is your least appealing characteristic?

I lied about question 3 – actually I've been told I'm a bit bossy!

What characteristic in others annoys you the most?

Whingeing and shallowness.

Who do you most admire?

Cilla Black – she's just so funny and desperately wants to be glam, knows exactly what she's about, straight down the line.

Who do you least admire?

Difficult one. I can generalise

though: rude people and Amanda de Cadenet.

What is your favourite film and/or TV programme?

Moonstruck and Seven Brides for Seven Brothers, believe it or not. TV, well, it's got to be Blind Date and definitely Coronation Street.

What is your least favourite film and/or TV programme?

Eraserhead by David Lynch – effective but repulsive.

Who is your favourite actor/performer?

Actor: Dustin Hoffman. Performer: 'our Cilla' and Chris Evans (Big Breakfast).

Who is your least favourite actor/performer?

That's a toughie – but I am not a big fan of Laurel and Hardy.

What is your favourite record/piece of music?

At the moment kd lang's album Ingenue. I also love The Gypsy Kings and Les Negresses Vertes.

What is your least favourite record/piece of music?

Agadoo by Black Lace.

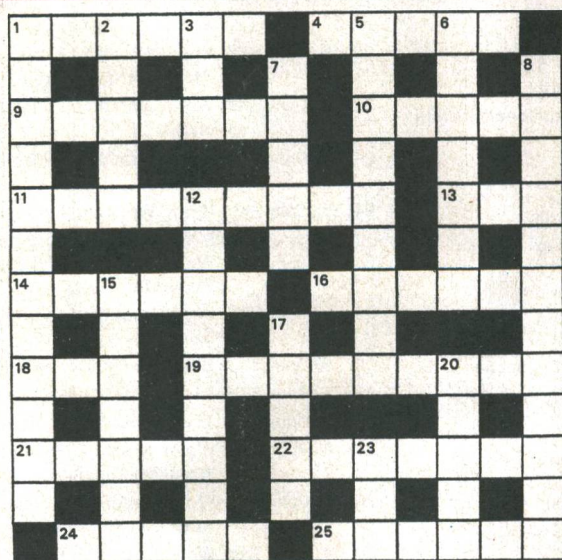

Where do you see yourself in five years' time, best/worst scenario?

Best – employed as a presenter with a quiz show/chat show. Worst: unemployed.

Congratulations to May's £50 winner Miss DA Wheatcroft of Telford, Shropshire

From the BBC

Speak French at 4! Spanish at 7!

A language will never again be this easy or fun to learn!

The secret?
Start early!

Experts in Child Language Development have identified the critical "window of opportunity" – from age 2 to 12 – when children learn languages naturally. Even before they learn to read or write! Now, the BBC Language Course for Children can give your child the gift of a foreign language.

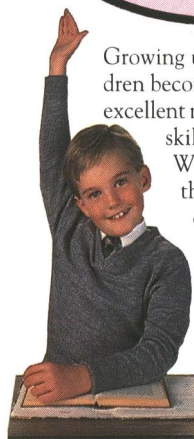

Your children
are guaranteed
to love it!

The BBC's language courses set the standard; no one has taught more people around the world with greater success.

This internationally acclaimed video course uses lively characters (like fuzzy Muzzy), engaging stories, and delightful songs to bring language to life. Without study. Without stress. Almost like magic, the proven "see-and-learn, listen-and-learn" technique gets children absorbed in a foreign language in less time than it takes you to read this page!

Give them
an advantage
at school

Growing up with Muzzy helps children become good listeners, develop excellent memories, and acquire vital skills for academic success. When learning is fun from the very start, youngsters can enter school with a positive attitude toward education.

Muzzy narrows the gap between our children and their accomplished European peers. Speaking a foreign language gives boys and girls the edge in school and opens up career possibilities later on. This could be the most valuable advantage you ever give your children.

Sample ages for beginning a second language*

Japan	Age 8	France	Pre-school
Sweden	Age 7	Spain	Pre-school
Austria	Age 8	Canada	Pre-school

* Ages represent top schools; compulsory education usually begins several years later.

Try it
risk-free for 30 days!

The BBC Language Course for Children starts working the day it arrives. Choose French, Spanish, Italian or German. Muzzy starts your child on the new language and soon adds hundreds of new words and phrases to their vocabulary. Each course includes four full-colour animated video cassettes, two audio cassettes, storybook, activity book and parent's guide, all in an attractive, durable storage portfolio. You pay just £19.80 for five months. If not 100% delighted, return the course within 30 days for a full refund.

If you wait,
it will be too late!

Paramount Pictures Presents the Official

STAR TREK

C H E S S S E T

Playing board shown smaller than actual size of 16" x 16" x 3".

The greatest space saga of all time is now the greatest chess set ever. It's The Official STAR TREK® Chess Set. Authorised and authenticated by Paramount Pictures.

With this game, Kirk, Spock, "Bones" McCoy and the other members of the U.S.S. ENTERPRISE™ face the forces that would oppose the Federation™ – the Romulans®, the Klingons®, even the mighty Khan himself.

Each piece is an intricate sculpture revealing all the detail of the original characters. Each piece is crafted of pewter and plated with 22 carat gold or sterling silver and set on a lead crystal base. The playing board is crafted of aluminium and glass, depicting a dimensional star map.

Priced at just £29.50 per piece, it's the only chess set of its kind. It's unlike anything else in the entire universe. Available exclusively from Franklin Mint.
